Post-Jungian Criticism James S. Baumlin, Tita French Baumlin, George H. Jensen, 2004-02-01 This groundbreaking collection brings the range and diversity of post Jungian thought into the realm of contemporary literary and cultural criticism These essays explore expand critique and apply post Jungian critical theory as they revisit and reread Jung s own writings from numerous perspectives No longer treated as a source of clear unequivocal authoritative pronouncement Jung s writings are themselves subjected to critical deconstructive readings and several of the essays confront head on Jung s evident racism antifeminism anti Semitism and political conservatism While not downplaying such charges the contributors outline an alternative post Jungian theory responsive to contemporary feminist postcolonial and poststructural concerns The result is not just a critical reinterpretation but more important a regeneration of Jungian thought Books in Print ,1982
