- A Little Boy's Dream

To and fro, to and fro
In my little boat I go

- A Slash Of Blue

A slash of Blue—
A sweep of Gray—

- At The Twilight

At the twilight, a moon appeared in the sky;
Then it landed on earth to look at me.

- I Must Go Down To The Sea Again

I must go down to the sea again,
to the lonely sea and the sky;

- My Lover Asks Me

My lover asks me:
"What is the difference between me and the sky?"

- Summer Stars

Bend low again, night of summer stars.
So near you are, sky of summer stars,

- The Little Chimney Sweep - Victorian Times

What is above all these chimneys, I asked the young lad,
The chimney sweep boy replied,

- Haiku Of Love

Romantic rains falls
Sky leans on the earth to give mouth watering kiss

Deborah Pope

Sky Poems:

The Creation of the Night Sky Nicholas Christopher, 1998 A new collection of poems from the magic realist poet

Falling Out of the Sky Deborah Pope, 1999-03-01 While the poems of Deborah Pope's latest collection are rooted in the here and now the place where tables are set children play and empty cans collect they are also suffused with a spirit of transfiguration and the miraculous They map an earthy palpable yet oddly luminous landscape that embraces our most intimate relationships with lovers with relatives and with the body itself Ranging over this terrain that is at once familiar and fearsome Pope engages difficult questions and complex emotions hard truths and fierce connections Pope employs plain yet sensuous language lyrical intensity and startling images to deal with both the commonplace Age How to think of it and the extraordinary An angel has begun to speak to me These poems are not passive in their perceptions or their passions There is the anger of children the clutch of illness the rawness of love and grief alike the strangeness of revelation At times they literally wrestle with angels In this mature powerful collection Pope boldly reveals her own grief fears and regrets as well as the grace mercy and love she shows and is shown Falling Out of the Sky beautifully communicates the profound and enigmatic relationship between love and desire hate and betrayal despair and hope I Say the Sky Nadia

Colburn, 2024-01-16 In poems at once profound and accessible Nadia Colburn finds splendor and astonishment in a natural world and a human world that is deeply troubled yet still majestically beautiful Both elegy and celebration I Say the Sky addresses some of the most challenging aspects of human existence from childhood trauma to environmental devastation and discovers in unexpected and clear sighted ways wisdom wonder and peace Colburn's brilliant second book charts a journey to meet the self From girlhood to parenthood loss to discovery in poems that sing the book explores how meaning is made Claiming the female voice from silence the poems find their grounding in the body and achieve rootedness and hope I Say the Sky is a meditative and ultimately inspiring book that will be savored by seasoned readers as well as those new to poetry

The Alarming Beauty of the Sky Leslie Monsour, 2005 The Sky that Falls Deniz Besim, 2014-06-17 The book is a collection of forty poems that are divided into four groups of poetic forms The forms include villanelles sestinas pantoums and sonnets Every poem tells a story and some of the poetry narrate more optimistic tales while other poems explore societal issues Issues explored within the poems include unfaithfulness the media bullying science agriculture adoption and more The optimistic poems in the collection explores friendship marriage love holidays seasons and nature The optimistic poetry contrasts the serious undertones presented within the more political poems The author is a creative writing classes teacher who lives in London and has enjoyed discovering expression in her writing by categorising her poems into forms

Reasons for the Sky Jim Hanson, 1979 Poetry in the Sky Jo Harr, 2025-03-13 While at first there may seem to be no connection for how could hot air balloons relate to poetry they are more alike than they appear Both are composed of beauty and grace both need hands to guide them fire to fuel them Poetry in the Sky is a collection of hot air balloon poems written
