Russian Literature and Its Demons Pamela Davidson, 2000 Merezhkovsky's bold claim that all Russian literature is to a certain degree a struggle with the temptation of demonism is undoubtedly justified And yet despite its evident centrality to Russian culture the unique and fascinating phenomenon of Russian literary demonism has so far received little critical attention This substantial collection fills the gap A comprehensive analytical introduction by the editor is followed by a series of fourteen essays written by eminent scholars in their fields The first part explores the main shaping contexts of literary demonism the Russian Orthodox and folk tradition the demonization of historical figures and views of art as intrinsically demonic The second part traces the development of a literary tradition of demonism in the works of authors ranging from Pushkin and Lermontov Gogol and Dostoevsky through to the poets and prose writers of modernism including Blok Akhmatova Bely Sologub Rozanov Zamiatin and through to the end of the 20th century

Baba Yaga Andreas Johns, 2004 Baba Yaga is a well known witch from the folklore tradition of Russia Ukraine and Belarus A fascinating and colorful character she resembles witches of other traditions but is in many ways unique Living in the forest in a hut that stands and moves on chicken legs she travels in a mortar with a pestle and sweeps away her tracks with a broom In some tales she tries to harm the protagonist while in others she is helpful This book investigates the image and ambiguity of Baba Yaga in detail and considers the meanings she has for East Slavic culture Providing a broad survey of folktales and other sources it is the most thorough study of Baba Yaga yet published and will be of interest to students of anthropology comparative literature folklore and Slavic and East European studies
