At the Temple of Art Colleen Denney, 2000. In the hands of an innovative team consisting of Sir Coutts Lindsay, his wife Blanche Lindsay and two managers Charles Halle and Joseph Comyns Carr, the gallery developed a reputation as a leading exhibition space for British and Continental artists during the late Victorian period. What factors contributed to its rise to prominence on the London exhibition circuit? How did it maintain that respected place in light of the diversification of showcases during this period? Central to this book is a close examination of the paintings which were shown at the gallery during its fourteen year run: how they were received by the critics and which movements were represented.
