John Newton's Theology of Suffering and Its Application to Pastoral Care Keith Palmer, 2025-05-22 John Newton was an eighteenth century Anglican minister who is best known as the writer of the hymn Amazing Grace Yet he was also the leading pastoral counselor of his generation who kept up a prolific letter writing ministry of pastoral care to dozens of people from all walks of life who wrote seeking his advice But why was Newton's counsel so popular This work seeks to answer this question by exploring Newton's unique theology of suffering which formed an essential structure that informed and shaped his model of soul care Influenced by this doctrine Newton's manner and methodology of pastoral care is explored highlighting key principles of his strategy as he sought to care for others Finally two examples of Newton's counsel are considered his ministry to his wife during her chronic health issue and his care of the poet William Cowper through his decades of struggle with depression

The Life of John Newton John Newton, 1846

From Slave Ship to Harvard James H. Johnston, 2012-05-14 Part historical narrative part genealogical detective work this is the true story of an African American family in Maryland over six generations Library Journal Using diaries court records legal documents books paintings photographs and oral histories From Slave Ship to Harvard traces a family from the colonial period and the American Revolution through the Civil War to Harvard and finally today forming a unique narrative of black struggle and achievement Yarrow Mamout was an educated Muslim from Guinea brought to Maryland on the slave ship Elijah When he gained his freedom forty four years later he'd become so well known in the Georgetown section of Washington DC that he attracted the attention of the eminent portrait painter Charles Willson Peale who captured Yarrow's visage in the painting on the cover of this book. Yarrow's immediate relatives, his sister, niece, wife, and son, were notable in their own right. His son married into the neighboring Turner family, and the farm community in western Maryland called Yarrow'sburg was named for Yarrow. Mamout's daughter-in-law, Mary Polly Turner Yarrow, the Turner line ultimately produced Robert Turner Ford, who graduated from Harvard University in 1927. Just as Peale painted the portrait of Yarrow, James H. Johnston's new book puts a face on slavery and paints the history of race in Maryland, where relationships between blacks and whites were far more complex than many realize. As this one family's experience shows, individuals of both races repeatedly stepped forward to lessen divisions and to move America toward the diverse society of today.
