Sleep Has His House:

Sleep Has His House Anna Kavan, 2014-08-01 A classic later novel by Anna Kavan A largely autobiographical account of an unhappy childhood this daring synthesis of memoir and surrealist experimentation chronicles the subject's gradual withdrawal from the daylight world of received reality Brief flashes of daily experience from childhood adolescence and youth are described in what is defined as nighttime language a heightened decorative prose that frees these events from their gloomy associations The novel suggests we have all spoken this dialect in childhood and in our dreams but these thoughts can only be sharpened or decoded by contemplation in the dark Revealing that side of life which is never seen by the waking eye but which dreams and drugs can suddenly emphasize this startling discovery illustrates how these nighttime illuminations reveal the narrator's joy for the living world

Reconsidering Drugs NA NA, 2016-04-30 Lawrence Driscoll's fresh examination of the meaning of drugs from the Victorians to the present asks us to listen to historical and current voices whose positions on drugs are at variance with our truths Driscoll draws on the work of figures as diverse as William Burroughs Sigmund Freud Conan Doyle and Anna Kavan to shed light on different or silenced ways of talking about drugs and to offer us a historical counter memory The result of his work is to unsettle and disturb the familiar parameters that frame our discussion of drugs revealing that others are available positions which expose our own constructions as surprisingly limited

Poetics of Disturbances, 2024-10-28 This volume calls for a Narratology of Diversity by investigating narratives of non normative bodies and minds It explores mental health representations in literature including neurodiversity the body mind nexus and embodied non normativities therein emphasizing the importance of understanding diverse psychological conditions as represented in narratives The contributions include perspectives from a wide variety of scholars of European North American and comparative literature and culture While post classical narratology has evolved through phases of diversification and consolidation this volume represents innovation in understanding narrative development to embrace new areas of social awareness including gendered narratologies specifically feminist and queer narratologies and post colonial criticism paving the way for a more inclusive narratology

British Experimental Women's Fiction, 1945–1975 Andrew Radford, Hannah Van Hove, 2021-08-23 This book scrutinizes a range of relatively overlooked post WWII British women writers who sought to demonstrate that narrative prose fiction offered rich possibilities for aesthetic innovation What unites all the primary authors in this volume is a commitment to challenging the tenets of British mimetic realism as a literary and historical phenomenon This collection reassesses how British female novelists operated in relation to transnational vanguard networking clusters debates and tendencies both political and artistic The chapters collected in this volume enquire for example whether there is something fundamentally different or politically dissident about female experimental procedures and perspectives This book also investigates the processes of canon formation asking why in one way or another these authors have been sidelined or misconstrued by recent scholarship Ultimately it seeks to refine a new research archive on mid century British fiction by female novelists at least as diverse as recent and longer established work in the domain of modernist studies

Opacities Sofia Samatar, 2024-08-13 Opacities is a book about writing publishing and friendship Rooted in an epistolary relationship between Sofia Samatar and a friend and fellow writer this collection of meditations traces Samatar's attempt to rediscover the intimacy of writing In a series of compressed dynamic prose pieces Samatar blends letters from her friend with notes on literature turning to douard Glissant to study the necessary opacity of identity to Theresa Hak Kyung Cha for a model of literary kinship and to a variety of others including Clarice Lispector Maurice Blanchot and Rainer Maria Rilke for insights on the experience and practice of writing In so doing Samatar addresses a number of questions about the writing life Why does publishing feel like the opposite of writing How can a black woman navigate interviews and writing conferences without being reduced to a symbol Are writers located in their biographies or in their texts And above all how can the next book be written Blurring the line between author and character and between correspondence and literary criticism Opacities delivers a personal contemplative exploration of writing where it lives among impassioned conversations and the work of beloved writers

Ice Anna Kavan, 2017-11-14 A dazzling and haunting vision of the end of the world Ice is a masterpiece of literary science fiction now in a new 50th anniversary edition with a foreword by Jonathan Lethem One might become convinced that Kavan had seen the future A half century after its first appearance Kavan's fever dream of a novel is beginning to seem all too real The New Yorker In a frozen apocalyptic landscape destruction abounds great walls of ice overrun the world and secretive governments vie for control Against this surreal yet eerily familiar broken world an unnamed narrator embarks on a hallucinatory quest for a strange and elusive glass girl with silver hair He crosses icy seas and frozen plains searching ruined towns and ransacked rooms all to free her from the grips of a tyrant known only as the warden and save her before the ice closes all around A novel unlike any other Ice is at once a dystopian adventure shattering the conventions of science fiction a prescient warning of climate change and totalitarianism a feminist exploration of violence and trauma a Kafkaesque literary dreamscape and a brilliant allegory for its author's struggles with addiction all crystallized in prose glittering as the piling snow Kavan's 1967 novel has built a reputation as an extraordinary and innovative work of literature garnering acclaim from China Miéville Patti Smith J G Ballard Anaïs Nin and Doris Lessing among others With echoes of dystopian classics like Ursula Le Guin's The Lathe of Heaven Kurt Vonnegut's Cat's Cradle and J G Ballard's High Rise Ice is a necessary and unforgettable addition to the canon of science fiction classics One of the most mysterious of modern writers Anna Kavan created a uniquely fascinating fictional world Few contemporary novelists could match the intensity of her vision J G Ballard There is nothing else like it Doris Lessing For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 800 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators

England's Hidden Reverse, revised and expanded edition David Keenan, 2024-01-09 An expanded edition of the classic exploration of the English esoteric musical underground with the first biography of Coil Current 93 and Nurse With Wound This newly expanded edition of England's Hidden Reverse the classic exploration of the English esoteric musical underground that includes the first and only biographies of Coil Current 93 and Nurse With Wound is based on exclusive interviews and unprecedented access to all three bands personal archives Together these genre defying bands and their circles represent the English underground in all its cultural artistic and sexual variety Over four decades the three intertwined groups have maintained a symbiotic yet uneasy relationship with the mainstream of popular culture even as their music beliefs and practices have repelled them from it Theirs was a clandestine scene whose work accents the many occulted peculiarities of Englishness that flow through generations of outsiders channeling personalities as diverse as Aleister Crowley Arthur Machen Joe Orton Shirley Collins Bjrk and Marc Almond The story of this Hidden Reverse has necessarily remained a secret Until now This new volume contains almost 100 pages of extra material culled from Furfur a collection of interviews with musicians and artists whose careers intersected with the bands initially published alongside Strange Attractor's first limited edition of the book

Twentieth-Century English Literature A. Norman Jeffares, Michael Morony, 1986-12-12 In revising this book for a second edition Harry Blamires has updated his final chapters to give a thorough coverage to the work of dramatists novelists and poets who have achieved prominence in the 1980s either as new writers or rediscovered authors who have recently been brought back into print or revived by radio and television

British Avant-Garde Fiction of the 1960s Mitchell Kaye Mitchell, 2019-01-22 Explores the trailblazing work of the British literary avant garde of the 1960s This collection showcases the liveliness of British avant garde fiction of the 1960s which is diverse in its aesthetic practices and sometimes divided in its politics It brings together a selection of original research led essays on more than a dozen avant garde British writers of the 1960s revealing this to be a crucial and crucially overlooked period of British literary history Via detailed readings of authors such as Ann Quin B S Johnson Alexander Trocchi Maureen Duffy Alan Burns Christine Brooke Rose and many others the contributors reveal the diversity of material produced in this period and trace the complex relations of influence and indebtedness between the 60s avant garde earlier modernisms and later postmodern writing The volume shows that the 1960s is an even more vibrant period of literary experiment in Britain than might previously have been supposed and that the avant garde fiction produced then rewards our renewed attention to it Key Features Provides much needed critical analyses of the work of 60s avant garde writers Offers focused essays each presents one author in their cultural critical historical contexts by experts in the field Recuperates a lost decade in British literature and thus fills a vital gap in literary history between late modernism and early postmodernism Responds to burgeoning critical and popular interest in authors such as Christine Brooke Rose Ann Quin and B S Johnson and to a widespread interest in experimental and innovative writing more generally A Short History of English Literature Harry Blamires,2013-02-28 First published in 2012 This work of introduction is designed to escort the reader through some six centuries of English literature It begins in the fourteenth century at the point at which the language written in our country is recognizably our own and ends in the 1950s It is a compact survey summing up the substance and quality of the individual achievements that make up our literature The aim is to leave the reader informed about each writer s main output sensitive to the special character of his gifts and aware of his place in the story of our literature as a whole Twentieth Century Fiction George Woodcock,1983-04-01 A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English Harry Blamires,2021-06-23 First published in 1983 A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English is a detailed and comprehensive guide containing over 500 entries on individual writers from countries including Africa Australia Canada the Caribbean India Ireland New Zealand Pakistan Sri Lanka and the UK The book contains substantial articles relating to major novelists poets and dramatists of the age as well as a wealth of information on the work of lesser known writers and the part they have played in cultural history It focuses in detail on the character and quality of the literature itself highlighting what is distinctive in the work of the writers being discussed and providing key biographical and contextual details A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English is ideal for those with an interest in the twentieth century literary scene and the history of literature more broadly Breaking the Sequence Ellen G. Friedman,Miriam Fuchs,2014-07-14 These nineteen essays introduce the rich and until now largely unexplored tradition of women s experimental fiction in the twentieth century The writers discussed here range from Gertrude Stein to Christine Brooke Rose and include among others Virginia Woolf Jean Rhys Jane Bowles Marguerite Young Eva Figes Joyce Carol Oates and Marguerite Duras Friedman and Fuchs demonstrate the breadth of their research first in their introduction to the volume in which they outline the history of the reception of women s experimental fiction and analyze and categorize the work not only of the writers to whom essays are devoted but of a number of others too and second in an extensive and wonderfully useful bibliography Emma Kafalenos The International Fiction Review After an introduction that is practically itself a monograph eighteen essayists too many of them distinguished to allow an equitable sampling take up three generations of post modernists American Literature The editors see this volume as part of the continuing feminist project of the recovery and foregrounding of women writers Friedman and Fuchs s substantive introduction excellently synthesizes the issues presented in the rest of the volume Patrick D Murphy Studies in the Humanities Originally published in 1989 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Urban Gothic of the Second World War S. Wasson,2015-12-04 This book examines writing in the Gothic mode which subverts the dominant national narrative of the British home front Instead of seeing wartime experience as a site of fellowship and emotional resilience Elizabeth Bowen Anna Kavan Mervyn Peake Roy Fuller and others depict shadowy figures on the margin of the nation The Faery Queene Spenser,1877 Books and Bookmen ,1970 The Encyclopedia of Fantasy John Clute,John Grant,1999-03-15 Like its companion volume The

Encyclopedia of Science Fiction this massive reference of 4 000 entries covers all aspects of fantasy from literature to art

The Windmill ,1967 The Seven Sisters of Sleep Mordecai Cooke,1997-10-01 This groundbreaking survey written in 1860 is a radically open minded look at the use of drugs across the world and throughout the ages Early users of tobacco in Russia would have their noses cut off and repeat offenders their heads Pope Innocent XII excommunicated any who used it in St Peters Marijuana users in 14th century Egypt would have their teeth extracted for the crime Yet use of these and other forbidden substances continued to grow If only as a record of the perennial failure of harsh punishments to deter drug use Victorian naturalist Mordecai Cooke s work The Seven Sisters of Sleep would remain significant But Cooke s natural humor and keen insights have ensured this work s reputation as possibly the best early book from what has grown into an enormous body of literature on mind and mood altering substances Written at a time similar to our own when drug use was being reconsidered The Seven Sisters of Sleep is a thought provoking and open minded look at the use of drugs across the world and throughout the ages Quite popular in its day and a major influence on Lewis Carroll s Alice in Wonderland this is an important book for anyone interested in an unbiased account of humanity s long involvement with psychoactive hallucinogenic and stimulant plants Novelists and Prose Writers James Vinson,D. L. Kirkpatrick,1979
