

My Autobiography

I am Adrian Carl V. Dumat-ol. I am currently studying at Lanao del Norte Comprehensive High School. I'm working on an autobiographical essay about a life event that motivates me to study harder. I am writing about my experience when I found out that I have half siblings. That incident had a huge impact on me.

It all happened one summer day in 2011 when I was still 6 years old. At that time, I had no idea that I had a half sibling. One day, my father told me to go with him because we were going to visit my aunt. While we were traveling, my father told me that there was something that I needed to know, and he never told me that it was all about my half-siblings. When we arrived at my aunt's house, I noticed my big sister, and at that time, I didn't know she was my half sibling. All I knew is that we have the same mother, which is not.

While we were talking, father revealed a family secret to me that I had not known since I was born. That is, my older sister and I are not purely siblings because we had different mothers. I didn't believe them at first, but as I looked into their eyes, they seemed very serious. My half-sister spoke to me, and she confirmed everything our father had said, and she reassured me that even though we have different mothers, we are still siblings. I feel better and relieved after we talk.

Several years have passed, and my half siblings are changing the way they treat us. So I keep my distance and stop contacting them. They asked our father why I was not contacting them. Back then, I was the one who was going to chat with them first or contact them. They confronted me about why I was avoiding them, and I told them that they were the first ones who changed the way they treated us.

One day, my half siblings start making rumors that because of my mother, our father is starting to lose money, which is not true. So I was stunned by what they said. I asked them why they started to spread rumors about my mother. They made a lot of excuses and now we are still on bad terms.

Even though many problems happen, I need to stay strong and not be affected by what happened. I need to respect my elders, even if they have done bad things to me. Do not put your faith in all of their promises because there is a chance they will break them. Always choose good deeds because of all of the things you have done, God will always watch you.

The Autobiography Of A Painteretcher:

A Descriptive Bibliography of the Most Important Books in the English Language Howard Coppuck Levis, 1913 The Early Modern Painter-etcher Arthur Ross Gallery, John and Mable Ringling Museum of Art, Smith College. Museum of Art, 2006 For half a century after its introduction in Europe printmaking remained the province of a specially trained group of professionals What changed this situation was the invention of etching which allowed for print designs to be drawn directly onto a plate so that any competent draftsman could try his hand at it Many artists did and as a result we now have a wide ranging corpus of major Renaissance and Baroque graphics made by artists who though famous in other fields were novices in the print medium Featuring essays by Michael Cole Larry Silver Susan Dackerman Graham Larkin and exhibit co curator Madeleine Viljoen The Early Modern Painter Etcher spans three centuries roughly from the time of Dürer to that of Goya and looks at works executed by some seventy painters for whom printmaking was primarily an experimental field The book accompanies an exhibition that opened in April 2006 at the University of Pennsylvania and will travel to the Ringling Museum of Art and to the Smith College Museum of Art The American Painter-etcher Movement Maureen C. O'Brien, Patricia C. F. Mandel, Parrish Art Museum, 1984 Printmakers of the Baroque Susan Dixon, 2014 The essays in this volume complement the recent exhibition of Printmakers of the Baroque 17th Century Explorations of Space and Light at La Salle University Art Museum during winter 2013-2014 Co curated by La Salle Associate Professor of Art History Dr Susan Dixon the exhibition also provided a foundation for a Baroque art history course taught in spring 2014 This catalogue includes essays and labels written by undergraduate students enrolled in the course along with reproductions of all 40 artworks included in the exhibition A Bibliography of American Books Relating to Prints and the Art and History of Engraving Also of Catalogues of Important Sales and Exhibitions of Prints Held in America Howard Coppuck Levis, 1910 The Book Monthly James Milne, 1912 The History of the Book in the West: 1700-1800 Eleanor F. Shevlin, 2017-03-02 Influenced by Enlightenment principles and commercial transformations the history of the book in the eighteenth century witnessed not only the final decades of the hand press era but also developments and practices that pointed to its future the foundations of modern copyright a rapid growth in the publication circulation and reading of periodicals the promotion of niche marketing alterations to distribution networks and the emergence of the publisher as a central figure in the book trade to name a few The pace and extent of these changes varied greatly within the different sociopolitical contexts across the western world The volume's twenty four articles many of which proffer broader theoretical implications beyond their specific focus highlight the era's range of developments Complementing these articles the introductory essay provides an overview of the eighteenth century book and milestones in its history during this period while simultaneously identifying potential directions for new scholarship Who's who in Art Bernard Dolman, 2006 Encyclopedia of Bohemian and Czech-American Biography Miloslav Rechcigl Jr., 2016-11-10 As the Czech ambassador to the United States H E Petr

Gandalovic noted in his foreword to this book that Mla Rechcgl has written a monumental work representing a culmination of his life achievement as a historian of Czech America The Encyclopedia of Bohemian and Czech American Biography is a unique and unparalleled publication The enormity of this undertaking is reflected in the fact that it covers a universe starting a few decades after the discovery of the New World through the escapades and significant contributions of Bohemian Jesuits and Moravian brethren in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries the mass migration of the Czechs after the revolutionary year of 1848 and up to the early years of the twentieth century and the influx of refugees from Nazism and communism The encyclopedia has been planned as a representative a comprehensive and authoritative reference tool encompassing over 7 500 biographies This prodigious and unparalleled encyclopedic vade mecum reflecting enduring contributions of notable Americans with Czech roots is not only an invaluable tool for all researchers and students of Czech American history but is also a carte blanche for the Czech Republic which considers Czech Americans as their own and as a part of its magnificent cultural history A Bibliography of American Books Relating to Prints and the Art and History of Engraving Howard Coppuck Levis,1910
