The Baobab Car:

The Baobab Car Jacqueline Held, Arnaud Laval, 1978-08-01 Fields of Change René T. J. Cappers, 2007 This volume contains fifteen papers given at the International Workshop on African Archaeobotany in Groningen in 2003 Several papers deal with the domestication history and related aspects of specific plants including wheat Triticum rice Oryza pearl millet Pennisetum glaucum fig Ficus cotton Gossypium silk cotton Ceiba pentandra and baobab Adansonia digitata Other contributions discuss the exploitation of woody vegetations members of the sedge family Cyperaceae and the botanical composition of mummy garlands Three papers present the subfossil plant remains from Egyptian sites Pharaonic caravan routes through the Theban Desert Predynastic Ada ma and Napatan to Islamic Qasr Ibrim The last contribution presents an update inventory of the ancient plant remains present in the Agricultural Museum Dokki Cairo The book covers a wide range of countries and includes Namibia Burkina Faso Mali Senegal Mauritania Canary Isles Libya and Egypt The New Republic Herbert David Croly, 1979 Mukiwa Peter Godwin, 2011-06-22 Mukiwa opens with Peter Godwin six years old describing the murder of his neighbor by African guerillas in 1964 pre war Rhodesia Godwin s parents are liberal whites his mother a government employed doctor his father an engineer Through his innocent young eyes the story of the beginning of the end of white rule in Africa unfolds The memoir follows Godwin s personal journey from the eve of war in Rhodesia to his experience fighting in the civil war that he detests to his adventures as a journalist in the new state of Zimbabwe covering the bloody return to Black rule With each transition Godwin s voice develops from that of a boy to a young man to an adult returning to his homeland This tale of the savage struggle between blacks and whites as the British Colonial period comes to an end is set against the vividly painted background of the mysterious world of South Africa Max the Cat Nana Grey-Johnson, 2015-06-27 In Max the Cat Max the son of the district officer returns to his provincial hometown after qualifying as a teacher However Max returns under a cloud His father is unhappy with reports of his son s radical political activities at college This sets the tone of a one sided relationship While the son loves his father and holds him in highest regard the ambitious old politician plots for Max s removal by any means fair or foul The young man s crusade against official corruption does not sit well with some of the skeletons that his father would rather keep hidden to maintain his privilege and protect his friends Between these two men there is a woman a loving stepmother and a faithful wife who tries to reconcile her stepson and her husband With quiet faith and patience she lives with the great irony in their differences arising out of the son s firm belief in the moral principles his father taught him while her husband s own faith in his early teachings has been eroded by complacency and compromise after years in office Father and son are set on a warpath Behind the scenes in this struggle the spirits of their ancestors are at work The interplay is quite thrilling as African folklore religion and contemporary politics mix dramatically in this book to see if good triumphs over evil The Watcher Stephen Schwartz, 2023-11-20 Long ago I lived alone in my mountain shanty beside my lake in Maine The lake provided fish The forest provided small game and berries I had my books I had solitude I avoided contact with the outside world in Bar Harbor except as I needed food clothing some few tools and more books all of which I borrowed from those in the town Eventually each of the books was returned I didn't dislike people I just did not need or want their company At eighteen I was a hermit and happy to be so My life was simple and uncomplicated by the needs of others or of the outside world I spent each day absorbed in the wonders of the wildlife and of nature around me and the world of my books It was enough for me I was in control as much as the forest and weather around me would allow It all changed in a single day I was caught borrowing food from the market I had a possible sack with me that contained two books that I borrowed from the library There was also a pair of boots that I borrowed from the general store The constable and his deputy took me to the dock and placed me on the whaling ship that waited there There was no discussion There were no questions from the first mate They locked me in the hold I raged I cried I begged No one cared That was my life until the day the Watcher arrived on the ship My life changed in ten seconds I began the journey to become what I am now This journal records that journey of 116 years The journey has just begun I am not now what I have been or what I have yet to become
