The Barthes Effect Réda Bensmaïa, 1987 The Barthes Effect was first published in 1987 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions The author acknowledges the essay as an eccentric phenomenon in literary history one that has long resisted entry into the taxonomy of genres as it concentrates on four works by Roland Barthes The Pleasure of the Text A Lover's Discourse Roland Barthes by Roland Barthes and Camera Lucida Maintains that with Barthes the essay achieves a status of its own as reflective text a study rigorously conscious of the critical maneuvers it executes and more importantly questions as critical practice Bensmaïa's strategy produces a successful investigation of the interstices and slippages of meaning which Barthes addressed in his work SubStance Reda Bensmaïa is associate professor in the departments of French and comparative literature at the University of Minnesota and translator Pat Fedkiew a graduate student in French at Minnesota Michele Richman is associate professor of French at the University of Pennsylvania and author of Reading Georges Bataille Beyond the Gift Lydia Ginzburg's Prose Emily Van Buskirk, 2016-01-05 The Russian writer Lydia Ginzburg 1902-90 is best known for her Notes from the Leningrad Blockade and for influential critical studies such as On Psychological Prose investigating the problem of literary character in French and Russian novels and memoirs Yet she viewed her most vital work to be the extensive prose fragments composed for the desk drawer in which she analyzed herself and other members of the Russian intelligentsia through seven traumatic decades of Soviet history In this book the first full length English language study of the writer Emily Van Buskirk presents Ginzburg as a figure of previously unrecognized innovation and importance in the literary landscape of the twentieth century Based on a decade's work in Ginzburg's archives the book discusses previously unknown manuscripts and uncovers a wealth of new information about the author's life focusing on Ginzburg's quest for a new kind of writing adequate to her times She writes of universal experiences frustrated love professional failures remorse aging and explores the modern fragmentation of identity in the context of war terror and an oppressive state Searching for a new concept of the self and deeming the psychological novel a beloved academic specialty inadequate to express this concept Ginzburg turned to fragmentary narratives that blur the lines between history autobiography and fiction This full account of Ginzburg's writing career in many genres and emotional registers enables us not only to rethink the experience of Soviet intellectuals but to arrive at a new understanding of writing and witnessing during a horrific century Belated Modernity and Aesthetic Culture Gregory Jusdanis, 1991 How does literature function in the formation of a nation state What are its pivotal contributions to national discourse and the production of ideological collective will And ultimately how is literature institutionalized and aestheticized Belated Modernity and Aesthetic Culture Inventing National Literature addresses these questions and considers the role literature plays in the construction of a national cultural Gregory Jusdanis examines the emergence of art and literature in Western Europe in the eighteenth century and traces their introduction to Greece a stratified noncapitalist society that was hostile to Enlightenment and secularism This groundbreaking work explores the importation of national literatures into a largely non Western society and the inherent resistance they faced Arguing for the literary status of national culture at its inception Jusdanis brilliantly demonstrates that in literature the specific meanings in narratives and fiction form the process of nation building Culture history and literature he says merge in those narratives which in turn provide the imaginary mirror in which a nation reflects itself

Estranging the Familiar George Douglas Atkins, 1992 In Estranging the Familiar G Douglas Atkins addresses the often lamented state of scholarly and critical writing as he argues for a criticism that is at once theoretically informed and personal The revitalized critical writing he advocates may entail but is not limited to a return to the essay the form critical writing once took and the form that is now enjoying a resurgence of popularity and excellence Atkins contends that to reach a general audience criticism must move away from the impersonality of modern criticism and contemporary theory without embracing the old fashioned essay The venerable familiar essay may remain the basis Atkins writes but its conventional openness receptivity and capaciousness must extend to theory philosophy and the candor that seems to mark the tail end of the twentieth century In noting the timeliness if not the necessity of a return to the essay Atkins also considers our culture s parallel return to the personal When the essay combines good writing with the concerns of the personal Atkins says it becomes a form of criticism that is readable vital and potentially attractive to a large readership Atkins hopes critics will tap into the revitalized interest the essay now enjoys without ignoring the considerable insights and advances of contemporary theory He argues that despite claims to the contrary there is no inherent incompatibility between the essay and modern theory As Atkins considers various experiments in critical writing from Plato to the present notably feminist interest in the personal and autobiographical he contends that these attempts although undeniably important fall short of the desired goal when they emphasize the merely expressive and neglect the artful quality good writing can bring to personal criticism The final third of the book consists of a series of experiments in critical writing that represent the author s own attempts to bridge the gap between theory and popular criticism between an academic and a general audience In essays that illustrate the rhetorical power of the form Atkins describes the reciprocal relationship between his life experience and a reading of The Odyssey explains the role that theory has played in his personal development and chronicles his attempts to find a voice as a writer

Dialogue and Critical Discourse Michael Macovski, 1997-08-07 This interdisciplinary volume of collected mostly unpublished essays demonstrates how Mikhail Bakhtin s theory of dialogic meaning and its subsequent elaborations have influenced a wide range of critical discourses With essays by Michael Holquist Jerome J McGann John Searle Deborah Tannen Gary Saul Morson Caryl Emerson Shirley Brice Heath Don H Bialostosky Paul Friedrich Timothy Austin John Farrell Rachel May and Michael Macovski the collection explores dialogue not only as an exchange among intratextual voices but as an extratextual interplay of historical influences oral forms and cultural heuristics as well Such approaches extend the implications of dialogue beyond the boundaries of literary theory to anthropology philosophy linguistics and cultural studies The essays address such issues as the establishment and exercise of political power the relation between conversational and literary discourse the historical development of the essay and the idea of literature as social action Taken together the essays argue for a redefinition of literary meaning one that is communal interactive and vocatively created They demonstrate that literary meaning is not rendered by a single narrator nor even by a solitary author but is incrementally exchanged and constructed

Cardiovascular Complications of Liver Disease Arie Bomzon, Laurence M. Blendis, 1990-10-09 This state of the art book concentrates in one volume our current knowledge on the cardiovascular complications of liver disease This easy to read work provides a better understanding of the pathogenesis and consequences of portal hypertension and establishes a physiological basis for its pharmacological treatment It examines the effect of liver disease on volume regulation the activity of the sympathetic nervous system and the processes involved in capillary fluid exchange It includes a discussion on volume and sodium regulation as well as atrial natriuretic peptide It also covers the effects of different classes of drugs such as alcohol sympathomimetics diuretics and hormones on the cardiovascular system in liver disease This reference manual is an absolute must for all clinicians and researchers with an interest in the cardiovascular system in liver disease

The Subject of Philosophy Philippe Lacoue-Labarthe, 1993 The Subject of Philosophy presents a sustained examination of the relation between literature and philosophy with special emphasis on the problem of the subject and of representation Spanning the history of philosophy from Plato and Aristotle to Hegel Nietzsche Freud and Heidegger and addressing such major moments in the history of literature as Greek tragedy and German romanticism The book repeatedly raises the question whether philosophy's very attempts to distinguish itself from literature are not conditioned and exceeded by a fundamental inextricability of the two In these readings Lacoue Labarthe focuses on such issues as the nature of fiction and of figurative language the fate of the work the status of the author the question of madness and the definition of gender He broaches as well the analysis of mimesis the most important concept of his later work and one that already gives to his persistent aesthetic preoccupations an ethical and political resonance Philippe Lacoue Labarthe is the author of many books including Typography Mimesis Philosophy Politics Heidegger Art and Politics and with Jean Luc Nancy The Literary Absolute This book is intended for those in the fields of literary theory philosophy

Readings Hélène Cixous, 1991 Four striking and novel textual studies of major literary figures and emergent authors Selected from Cixous's seminars taught between 1980 and 1986 at the Université de Paris VIII Saint Denis and at the Collège International de Philosophie the texts chronicle the French intellectual scene with its shifting tastes over the decade following May 1968 Edited translated and introduced by Verena Andermatt Conley Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Making Sense in Life and Literature Hans Ulrich Gumbrecht, 1992 Stanzas Giorgio Agamben, 1993 Stanzas which means rooms in Italian is a blend of philology the psychoanalysis of toys medieval physics and psychology and contemporary linguistics and philosophy In this work Giorgio Agamben attempts to reconfigure the epistemological foundation of Western culture He rereads Freud and Saussure to discover the impossibility of metalanguage there is no superior language that can read the obscure scenes of the unconscious and the symbol is always the return of the repressed in an improper signifier This impossibility leads Agamben to the problem of representation He argues that since language is the locus of the production and storage of phantasms all real objects are fractured by phantasmic itineraries that in turn divide poetry and philosophy joy and knowledge This division is at the origin of Western culture and renders impossible the possession of any object of knowledge Giorgio Agamben is the author of Language and Death University of Minnesota Press 1991
