

THE BASEBALL READER

Edited by Charles Einstein

"Enough to burst the seams of the biggest pantry at the Waldorf" ... so ran one typical review of the first Fireside Book of Baseball. That was in 1956. Then came the second and third Fireside books to form America's most famous and beloved treasury of sports literature.

Now out of print, the original Fireside series takes on a spectacular new life in the pages of The Baseball Reader. Here in one splendidly generous volume, spilling over with lore and legend (and laughter too), Fireside editor Charles Einstein presents not only scores of all-time favorites from the Fireside series but also a few neoclassic touches of current vintage.
