The Basket Makers Donkey:

The Basket-maker's Donkey Jane Cope,1990-01-01 Botanical Folk Tales of Britain and Ireland Lisa Schneidau,2018-03-19 The islands of Britain and Ireland hold a rich heritage of plant folklore and wisdom from the magical yew tree to the bad tempered dandelion Here are traditional tales about the trees and plants that shape our landscapes and our lives through the seasons They explore the complex relationship between people and plants in lowlands and uplands fields bogs moors woodlands and towns Suitable for all ages this is an essential collection of stories for anyone interested in botany the environment and our living heritage The Girl's Own Annual ,1896 Cafe Tempest Barbara Bonfigli,2009-06 Cafe Tempest Adventures on a Small Greek Island is a witty evocative beautifully written novel that puts you right in the heart of Greek island life It s so alive with the sights and smells and tastes and characters of Greece that you can pick it up and start your Mediterranean vacation on page one On a deeper level the book is filled with the kinds of observations reflections and arc of self discovery that make Eat Pray Love so compelling Gaon Henry Orenstein,2015-12-08 This study opposes the prevailing view that Indian villages have little social solidarity and points out the relationship between village solidarity and the potentially centrifugal factors of caste conflict and power Originally published in 1965 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Aran Islands Various,2017-03-20 Inishmore Inishmaan Inisheer wild isolated starkly beautiful and of great historical importance Lying in the Atlantic Ocean off Galway Bay the Aran Islands are a place apart Here island life has preserved many aspects of Irish culture its language customs and traditions These islands bear witness to events from earliest times and have experienced Celtic occupation the arrival of Christianity invasions sieges famine and evictions This history is evident in the massive Iron Age forts the Early Christian ruins and in the literature songs and images from these three stepping stones out of Europe A comprehensive beautifully illustrated introduction to and lasting memento of these unique islands Travel and Artisans in the Ottoman Empire Suraiya Faroghi,2014-01-30 It has often been assumed that the subjects of the Ottoman sultans were unable to travel beyond their localities since peasants needed the permission of their local administrators before they could leave their villages According to this view only soldiers and members of the governing elite would have been free to travel However Suraiya Faroghi s extensive archival research shows that this was not the case pious men from all walks of life went on pilgrimage to Mecca slaves fled from their masters and craftspeople travelled in search of work Most travellers in the Ottoman era headed for Istanbul in search of better prospects and even in peacetime the Ottoman administration recruited artisans to repair fortresses and sent them far away from their home towns In this book Suraiya Farooqi provides a revisionist study of those artisans who chose or were obliged to travel and those who stayed predominantly in their home localities She considers the occasions and conditions which triggered travel among the artisans and the knowledge that they had of the capital as a spatial entity She shows that even those craftsmen who did not travel extensively had some level of mobility and that the Ottoman sultans and viziers who spent so much effort in attempting to control the movements of their subjects could often only do so within very narrow limits Challenging existing historiography and providing an important new revisionist perspective this book will be essential reading for students and scholars of Ottoman history Craftswomen in Kerdassa, Egypt Patricia D. Lynch, Hoda Fahmy, 1984 Access to income generating work is seen as a way of enabling lower status women to gain security and decision making capacity Better basic health care is essential for lowering infant death rates and female mortality which in turn are shown to be inextricably linked to family size motivation Relevant education vocational training programmes and cooperative formation are stressed as essential components of any overall policy House Beautiful ,1902 Buy the Best of Ireland Mary Jean Jecklin, Kelley V.
