The Complete Wedding March of Erich Von Stroheim Erich Von Stroheim, Herman G. Weinberg, 1974-01-01      The Complete Wedding March of Erich Von Stroheim, a Reconstruction of the Film... in 255 Still Photos... Herman G. Weinberg, 1975      Austria Made in Hollywood Jacqueline Vansant, 2019 Considers over sixty Hollywood films set in Austria examining the film industry the influence of domestic factors on images of a foreign country and the persistence of clichés Maria von Trapp watching the final scene of The Sound of Music for the first time as her family escaped into Switzerland exclaimed Don't they know geography in Hollywood Salzburg does not border on Switzerland Had she thought about the beginning of the film which transports viewers to Salzburg Austria in the last Golden Days of the Thirties when the country was in fact suffering from extreme political and social unrest she might have asked Don't they know history either In The Sound of Music as well as in Hollywood's many other Austria films the projections on the screen resemble reflections in a funhouse mirror Elements of a real place with areal history inhabited by real people can be found in the fractured distortions which have both drawn from and contributed to the general public's perceptions of the country and its citizens Austria Made in Hollywood focuses on films set in an identifiable Austria examining them through the lenses of the historical contexts on both sides of the Atlantic and the prism of the ever changing domestic film industry The study chronicles the protean screen images of Austria and Austrians that set them apart both from European projections of Austria and from Hollywood incarnations of other European nations and nationals It explores explicit and implicit cultural commentaries on domestic and foreign issues inserted in the Austrian stories while considering the many sometimes conflicting forces that shaped the films      Battle of the Piave, 2004      Distributing Silent Film Serials Rudmer Canjels, 2011-01-25 Tracing the international consumption distribution and cultural importance of silent film serials in the 1910s and 1920s Canjels provides an exciting new understanding of the cultural dimension and the cultural transformation and circulation of media forms Specifically he demonstrates that the serial film form goes far beyond the well known American two reel serial the cliffhanger Throughout the book Canjels focuses on the biggest producers of serials America France and Germany while imported serials such as those in the Netherlands are also examined This research offers new views on the serial work of well known directors as D W Griffith Abel Gance Erich von Stroheim and Fritz Lang while foregrounding the importance of lesser known directors such as Louis Feuillade or Joe May In the early twentieth century serial productions were constantly undergoing change and were not merely distributed in their original form upon import As adjusted serials were present in large quantities or confronted different social spaces nationalistic feelings and views stimulated by the unrest of World War I and the expanding American film industry could be incorporated and attached to the serial form Serial productions were not only adaptable to local discourses they could actively stimulate and interact as well influencing reception and further film production By examining the distribution reception and cultural contexts of American and European serials in various countries this cross cultural research makes both local and global observations Canjels thus offers a highly relevant case study of transnational transcultural and transmedia relations TLA Video & DVD Guide 2005 David Bleiler,2025-06-25 The TLA Video and DVD Guide 2005 is the absolutely indispensable guide to worthwhile cinema It includes over 10 000 entries on the best of film and video that a real film lover might actually want to see Unlike some of the other mass market guides that tend to be clogged with unenlightening entries on even more unenlightening films TLA focuses on independent foreign and the best of Hollywood to bring the cineaste an opinionated guide that is both fun and useful The guide includes Reviews of more than 10 000 films Four detailed indexes by star directory country of origin and theme More than 300 photos throughout A listing of all the major film awards of the past quarter century as well as TLA Bests and recommended films A comprehensive selection of cinema from more than 50 countries Now published annually the TLA Video and DVD Guide is one of the most respected guides from one of the finest names in video retailing perfect for anyone with an eclectic taste in cinema Heritage portraits of the characters who symbolize an original and pioneering era in motion history and explores their unique talents and extraordinary private lives Slide offers a potentially revisionist view of many of the stars he profiles repudiating the status of some and restoring to fame others who have slipped from view He personally interviewed many of his subjects and knew several of them intimately putting him in a distinctive position to tell their true stories Women in Horror Films, 1930s Gregory William Mank, 2015-09-15 They had more in common than just a scream whether they faced Dracula Frankenstein's Monster the Mummy Dr Jekyll Mr Hyde King Kong the Wolf Man or any of the other legendary Hollywood monsters Some were even monsters themselves such as Elsa Lanchester as the Bride and Gloria Holden as Dracula's Daughter And while evading the Strangler of the Swamp former Miss America Rosemary La Planche is allowed to rescue her leading man This book provides details about the lives and careers of 21 of these cinematic leading ladies femmes fatales monsters and misfits putting into perspective their contributions to the films and folklore of Hollywood terror and also the sexual harassment exploitation and genuine danger they faced on the job In a previously unpublished account Bride of Frankenstein's Anne Darling remembers when at age 17 she was humiliated on set by director James Whale over the color of her underwear Filled with anecdotes and recollections many of the entries are based on original interviews and there are numerous old photographs and movie stills Turner Classic Movies Presents Leonard Maltin's Classic Movie Guide Leonard Maltin, 2015-09-29 The definitive guide to classic films from one of America's most trusted film critics Thanks to Netflix and cable television classic films are more accessible than ever Now co-branded with Turner Classic Movies Leonard Maltin's Classic Movie Guide covers films from Hollywood and around the world from the silent era through 1965 and from The Maltese Falcon to Singin' in the Rain and Godzilla King of the Monsters Thoroughly revised and updated and featuring expanded indexes a list of Maltin's personal recommendations and three hundred new entries including many offbeat and obscure films this new edition is a must-have companion for every movie lover Joseph P. Kennedy Presents Cari Beauchamp, 2010-02-09 Joseph P Kennedy's reputation as a savvy businessman diplomat and sly political patriarch is well documented But his years as a Hollywood mogul have never been fully explored until now In Joseph P Kennedy Presents Cari Beauchamp brilliantly explores this unknown chapter in Kennedy's biography Between 1926 and 1930 Kennedy positioned himself as a major Hollywood player In two short years he was running three studios simultaneously and then in a bold move he merged his studios with David Sarnoff to form the legendary RKO Studio Beauchamp also tells the story of Kennedy's affair with Gloria Swanson how he masterminded the mergers that created the blueprint for contemporary Hollywood and made the fortune that became the foundation of his empire *Catalog of Copyright Entries. Suchenski,2016 Although the length of commercially distributed feature films has remained relatively standardized since the mid 1910s there is also a small but substantial body of ambitious works that utilize their extraordinarily long durations to give cinema the character of a religious ritual While their methods and overall goals vary considerably these works actively participate in a modernist exploration of the relationship between form and content often taking their innovations to what seem to be their limits simultaneously establishing and exhausting their own paradigms Their makers strove to create cinematic cathedrals monuments to the imagination that promise profound transformations of vision selfhood and experience Unique both in their formal adventurousness and their modes of presentation works like Napol on Abel Gance 1927 Eniaios Gregory Markopoulos 1947 1992 Out 1 Jacques Rivette 1971 and Histoire s du cin ma Jean Luc Godard 1988 1998 utilize their temporal scale to create a particularly intense form of spectatorial engagement that is wedded to or related to a larger utopian program Synthesizing their disparate influences into magisterial edifices these projects treat cinema as a space in which the most ancient forms can be made radically new      Moving Pictures Budd Schulberg,2012-07-31 The Oscar winning screenwriter of On the Waterfront recounts his life his career and how Hollywood became the dream factory it still is today Kirkus Reviews When Seymour Wilson Budd Schulberg moved from New York to Los Angeles as a child Hollywood s filmmaking industry was just getting started To some the region was still more famous for its citrus farms than its movie studios In this iconic memoir Schulberg the son of one of Tinseltown s most influential producers recounts the rise of the studios the machinations of the studio heads and the lives of some of cinema s earliest and greatest stars Even as Hollywood grew to become one of the country s most powerful cultural and economic engines it retained the feel of a company town for decades Schulberg s sparkling recollections offer a unique insider view of both the glitter and dark side of the dream factory s early years This ebook features an illustrated biography of Budd Schulberg including rare images and never before seen documents from the author s estate      Visions of Vienna Alexandra Seibel,2025-10-01 Vienna with its stunning architecture and unforgettable streetscape has long provided a backdrop for filmmakers Visions of Vienna offers a close look at how directors such as Erich von Stroheim Ernst Lubitsch and Max Oph ls made use of the city and how the nostalgic glorification of the Habsburg era can be seen as directly tied to crucial issues of modernity Films set in Vienna Alexandra Seibel shows persistently articulate the experience of displacement due to emigration changing gender relations and anti feminism class distinction and anti Semitism themes that run counter to the ongoing mystification of Vienna as the incarnation of waltz dreams and schmaltz      National Board of Review Magazine ,1928      Screening Vienna: The City of Dreams in English-Language Cinema and Television Timothy K. Conley,2016-01-04 Vienna has been the locale for nearly one hundred and fifty films and television productions in English from 1920s through the first years of this century with imaginative representations of Freud Strauss Franz Josef Mozart Beethoven and Klimt mad scientists assassins spies refugees romantics and American professors historical dramas cartoons documentaries and Hitchcock s only musical comedy The City of Dreams has appeared as an imperial court a center of scientific and medical research a Jewish and Catholic homeland a locus of international espionage and domestic crime the destination for innocents abroad the birthplace of the waltz a stage for performances and performers and the site for romantic rendezvous For many in English language audiences such productions have constituted the most significant representations of Vienna a city that historically has been the capital of one of Europe s largest empires one of the most important centers for classical music and opera both a victim and an accomplice of Nazi Germany and the home of international diplomacy Cultural historians and Austrian writers have provided significant commentary on the city but their influence has seldom reached such an extensive audience as the films and television productions screening Vienna for English language audiences Screening Vienna thus analyzes the representation of Vienna and the Viennese in English language film and television reviews the critical reception of these productions and measures the representations against the cultural and historical contexts and the writings of contemporary Austrian writers The book is unique in its scope over one hundred and fifty productions from the 1920s to 2013 and in its inclusion of leading reviews of many films references to cultural and historical studies of Vienna and references to modern and contemporary Austrian fiction Thus the analysis is more extensive in its coverage and more intensive in its analysis of each film than any previous study with a focus on scene language plot characterization and the reception of these films Scholars and students in American cultural studies film studies Austrian and Viennese history and popular culture will find the book informative and essential for studies of Vienna in the American and British imagination Given the extensive coverage and filmography many libraries should also view the book as a reference work in addition to its status in cultural and film studies The book will also be useful for film studies and American popular culture studies courses at advanced or graduate level
