Great Illusion Norman Angell,2019-11-19 In The Great Illusion renowned British writer Norman Angell presents a groundbreaking analysis of the interdependence of economic interests and the futility of war Through a combination of political theory meticulous historical context and an astute critique of militarism Angell argues that modern warfare is rendered impractical by the complexities of global trade and economic ties His literary style blends rigorous argumentation with eloquent prose positioning the work within the broader discourse of early 20th century pacifism and realist theory making it a critical text in discussions surrounding the rationale for conflict Norman Angell a prominent journalist and political theorist was deeply influenced by the tumultuous geopolitical climate of his time His experiences as a war correspondent during the Balkan Wars and his keen insights into international economics helped shape the arguments presented in this seminal work Angell's belief in the power of rational discourse and his commitment to pacifist principles ultimately led him to challenge the prevailing notions of war as an inevitable aspect of national policy The Great Illusion is an essential read for anyone seeking to understand the intersections of economics politics and conflict Angell's prescient warnings about the futility of war resonate even today making this book not just a historical artifact but a vital commentary on the human condition It encourages readers to reflect on the broader implications of our interconnected world and the true cost of warfare In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value for your reading experience A succinct Introduction situates the work's timeless appeal and themes The Synopsis outlines the central plot highlighting key developments without spoiling critical twists A detailed Historical Context immerses you in the era's events and influences that shaped the writing A thorough Analysis dissects symbols motifs and character arcs to unearth underlying meanings Reflection questions prompt you to engage personally with the work's messages connecting them to modern life Hand picked Memorable Quotes shine a spotlight on moments of literary brilliance Interactive footnotes clarify unusual references historical allusions and archaic phrases for an effortless more informed read Self-Mastery (the way of the heaven born) william george bryant ph.d,2005 This is the combined volume of all four major sections of the SELF MASTERY series of courses by the APOFS organization and the first to be published It should be studied as a course in practical metaphysics

YOGA The Conquest of Istanbul and the Manipulation of Architecture Berin F. Gür,2025-08-15 This book explores the contemporary memory of the Ottoman conquest of Constantinople now Istanbul in 1453 It focuses on how the conquest is remembered by Islamist nationalist imagination in Turkey today and how architecture plays a role in shaping this memory underscoring its susceptibility to political manipulation Discussing Islamist nationalist rhetoric of Istanbul s conquest through the conceptual framework of melancholy a significant theme in the history of ideas the argument posits that this narrative is a politically driven endeavor fueled by paranoia producing melancholy over the conquest of Istanbul This book redefines melancholy as a politically manipulated project which anchors the imagery of conquest to spatial and architectural symbols of mourning while creating imaginary lost objects Architecture becomes the book s subject as the bearer of clues to searching for lost objects and as a spatial political tool of conquest rhetoric such as the Hagia Sophia in Istanbul and the Panorama 1453 History Museum As various groups with differing ideologies and identities continue to feel the impact of the conquest this book also examines the other side of the event specifically how the Greeks commemorate the fall of Constantinople recognizing it as a dark memory from their perspective This book targets diverse audiences in cultural studies social sciences arts and humanities including architecture history anthropology and political studies interested in Southeast Europe and Islamic societies

The End of Two Illusions Hamid Dabashi,2022-04-19 Dabashi demonstrates how the West was an ideological commodity and civilizational mantra invented during the European Enlightenment serving as an epicenter for the rise of globalized capitalist modernity In turn Orientalist ideologues went around the world manufacturing equally illusory abstractions in the form of inferior civilizations in India China Africa Latin America and the Islamic world The result was the projection of Islam and the West as the prototype of a civilizational hostility that has given false explanations and flawed prognoses of our contemporary history with weaponized Islamophobia on one side and militant Islamism on the other as its most palpable manifestations Dabashi argues it is long past time to dismantle this dangerous liaison expose and overcome its perilous delusions and reimagine the world beyond its shimmering mirage

Clinical Medicine and Surgery ,1928

Living Zen [Second Edition] Robert Linssen,2016-10-21 Living Zen is that rare achievement both a survey of the rich history of Zen Buddhism and a guide to the practice of this most demanding and effortless art of being The distinguished Belgian scholar Robert Linssen offers a sage corrective to the idea that the Zen way is available only to those prepared to sit life out under the Bodhi Tree Gently but insistently he undermines this typically Western view inviting and enabling us as Christmas Humphreys puts it in his preface to take the leap from thought to No thought from the ultimate duality of Illusion Reality to a burst of laughter and a cup of tea Linssen s aim throughout this penetrating book is to encourage his readers to outgrow the cocoon of self centered thought and feeling The core of the book lies in its lucid analysis and in the meaning which it gives to the true attention focused undesirously in the immediate present which can dissolve the endless distractions of the fear conditioned ego The Times Literary Supplement Robert Linssen finally gives a sensible explanation of what Zen is
