Medieval Art, Modern Politics Brigitte Buettner, William J. Diebold, 2024-12-16 Medieval Art Modern Politics is an innovative volume of twelve essays by international scholars prefaced by a comprehensive introduction It examines the political uses and misuses of medieval images objects and the built environment from the 16th to the 20th century In case studies ranging from Russia to the US and from catacombs mosques cathedrals and feudal castles to museums and textbooks it demonstrates how the artistic and built legacy has been appropriated in post medieval times to legitimize varied political agendas whether royalist imperial fascist or colonial Entities as diverse as the Roman papacy the Catholic Church local arts organizations private owners of medieval fortresses or organizers of exhibitions and publishers are examined for the multiple ways they co-opt medieval works of art Medieval Art Modern Politics enlarges the history of revivalism and of medievalism by giving it a uniquely political twist demonstrating the unavoidable but often ignored intersection of art history knowledge and power

French Cinema and the Great War Marcelline Block, Barry Nevin, 2016-02-04 Even a century after its conclusion the devastation of the Great War still echoes in the work of artists who try to make sense of the political moral ideological and economic changes and challenges it spawned France the military major power of the Western Front carries the legacy of battles on its own soil and countless French lives lost defending the nation from the Central Powers It is no surprise that the impact of the First World War can still be seen in French films into the present day French Cinema and the Great War Remembrance and Representation provides the first book length study of World War I as it is featured in French cinema from the silent era to contemporary films Presented in three thematic sections Recording and Remembering the Great War Women at the Front and Interrogating Commemoration the essays in this volume explore the ways in which French film contributes to the restoration and modification of memories of the war Films such as La Grande Illusion King of Hearts A Very Long Engagement and Joyeux Noel are among those discussed in the volume's examination of the various ways in which film mediates personal and collective memories of this critical historical event This volume will be an invaluable resource not only to those interested in French Cinema or the cinema of the Great War but also to those interested in the impacts of war more generally on the cultural output of nations torn by the violence death and destruction of military conflict New Publications for Architecture Libraries ,1990 introduce French institutions and systems into its lost borderland Throughout these discussions the border itself shaped the process of reintegration by generating contact and tensions between populations on the two sides of the boundary line and by shaping expectations of what it meant to be French and Alsatian Borderland is the first comprehensive account of the return of Alsace to France which treats the border as a driver of change It draws upon national regional and local archives to follow the difficult process of Alsace s reintegration into French society culture political and economic systems and legislative and administrative institutions It connects the microhistory of the region with the macro levels of national policy international relations and transnational networks and with the cross border flows of ideas goods people and cultural products that shaped daily life in Alsace as its population grappled with the meaning of return to France In revealing the multiple voices who contributed to the region s reintegration it underlines the ways in which regional populations and cross border interactions have forged modern nations
