The Healthy Personality And The Christian Life:

The Healthy Personality and the Christian Life Douglas Hooker, 1977 A Healthy Personality for Every Child 1950
Mid-Century White House Conference on Children, Youth, Washington, DC, 1951 Secularisation in the Christian World Michael Snape, 2016-04-01

The power of modernity to secularise has been a foundational idea of the western world. Both social science and church history understood that the Christian religion from 1750 was deeply vulnerable to industrial urbanisation and the Enlightenment. But as evidence mounts that countries of the European world experienced secularising forces in different ways at different periods, the timing and causes of de Christianisation are now widely seen as far from straightforward. Secularisation in the Christian World brings together leading scholars in the social history of religion and the sociology of religion to explore what we know about the decline of organised Christianity in Britain, Europe, the United States, Canada, and Australia. The chapters tackle different strands, themes, comparisons, and territories to demonstrate the diversity of approach, thinking, and evidence that has emerged in the last 30 years of scholarship into the religious past and present. The volume includes both new research and essays of theoretical reflection by the most eminent academics. It highlights historians and sociologists in both agreement and dispute. With contributors from eight countries, the volume also brings together many nations for the first consolidated international consideration of recent themes in de Christianisation. With church historians and cultural historians and religious sociologists and sociologists of the godless society, this book provides a state of the art guide to secularisation studies.

One of the ten best recent Catholic sports books. America Magazine. Unsportsmanlike behavior by student athletes or parents at youth sporting events happens with regularity these days. Much recent research reveals that young people are dropping out of sport at alarming rates due to the often toxic elements in the culture of youth sports. The timely innovative essays in Youth Sport and Spirituality present a wide ranging overview that draws on resources from Catholic spiritual and theological traditions to address problems such as these, as well as opportunities in youth sport in the United States. The book consists of two sections. In the first, prominent scholars in philosophy, psychology, theology, and spirituality reflect on how youth sport contributes to the integral development of the person and his or her grasp of spiritual values. The second half of the book consists of chapters written by coaches, athletic directors, and specialists working with youth coaches. These practitioners share how their approaches to working with youth in sport contribute to the integral development of their players and their openness to transcendent values. The essays examine coaching as ministry, youth sport and moral development, and how parents can act as partners in youth sports, among other topics. The book will interest coaches, athletic directors, and youth ministers in Catholic elementary and high schools, in parish settings, as well as undergraduate and graduate students in education who are preparing to teach in Catholic schools. Jourard,1974 Saints in the World Jesus Urteaga,2002 Therapy Thieves Francis A. Martin,2020-03-13 Why are we practicing counselors and psychotherapists committed to failure This is the question that has haunted Dr Francis Martin as he has cataloged well over 20 000 distinct psychotherapy approaches advertised on the websites of licensed mental health professionals No doubt some of these are harmful most of them ineffective and many simply made up but the sheer volume of such techniques and practices advertised by licensed professionals holding advanced degrees whose services are billed to clients and insurance companies calls the credibility of the entire mental health profession into question Based on significant original research that joins research from others this book describes a near universal crisis in mental health care and recommends ways to rescue the field from itself The crisis is caused by declining competence among counselors and psychotherapists who have failed to regulate themselves and who therefore deliver inadequate if not harmful services The book calls for major specific and urgently needed reforms

Lewis D. O'Meara,1999 A completely revised edition of a widely used text that surveys the history theology and present condition of ministry both clerical and lay in today s church The Mystery We Celebrate, the Song We Sing Kathleen Harmon,2016-11-18 Music and liturgy seem inseparable yet we seldom pause to ponder their relationship in depth In this volume Kathleen Harmon offers her own insights by creatively exploring the complex interplay between congregational singing and the liturgical celebration of the paschal mystery Harmon asserts that liturgical music in the form of communal singing is a vehicle through which the ritual reenactment of the paschal mystery is effected She addresses concrete and practical pastoral applications of the relationship between music and liturgy She focuses on how the liturgical singing of the assembly creates the collective consciousness of church as the Body of Christ Music then is much more than just a component of liturgy it is in Harmon s view absolutely constitutive both of liturgy s deepest essence and its fullest realization Professional music scholars graduate students music directors and anyone else seeking a sophisticated analysis of liturgical music will find this volume a rich sourcebook of new ideas Kathleen Harmon SNDdeN is the music director for programs of the Institute for Liturgical Ministry in Dayton Ohio and contributor to Living Liturgy Spirituality Celebration and Catechesis for Sundays and Solemnities an annual resource published by Liturgical Press She is also a columnist for Liturgical Ministry and serves as director of music for St Paul Parish in Englewood Ohio
