Roberts, 2016-06-16 Excerpt from The Heart of the Ancient Wood Twice or thrice repeated under the round October moon or the noise of some great wind roaring heavily in the remote tops of pine and birch and hemlock Few and slender were the rays of sun that pierced down through those high tops The air that washed the endless vistas of brown green shadow was of a marvellous clarity not blurred by any stain of dust or vapour Lts magical transparency was confusing to an eye not born and bred to it making the far branches seem near and the near twigs unreal disturbing the accustomed perspective and hinting of some elvish deception in familiar and apparent things About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Heart of the Ancient Wood Charles G.D.
