The Heroic Triad Essays In The Social Energies Of Three Southwestern Cultures:

The Heroic Triad; Essays in the Social Energies of Three Southwestern Cultures Paul Horgan, 1970 Three essays revised and with a new prologue from the author's Great River the Rio Grande in North American history The Heroic Triad Paul Horgan, 1994 A beautifully written compact social and cultural history of the peoples of the Southwest Abridged from the the Pulitzer Prize winning Great River Translating Southwestern Landscapes Audrey Goodman, 2022-02-08 Winner of the Western Literature Association's Thomas J Lyon Award Whether as tourist's paradise countercultural destination or site of native resistance the American Southwest has functioned as an Anglo cultural fantasy for more than a century In Translating Southwestern Landscapes Audrey Goodman excavates this fantasy to show how the Southwest emerged as a symbolic space from 1880 through the early decades of the twentieth century Drawing on sources as diverse as regional magazines and modernist novels Pueblo portraits and New York exhibits Goodman has crafted a wide ranging history that explores the invention translation and representation of the Southwest Its principal players include amateur ethnographer Charles Lummis who conflated the critical work of cultural translation pulp novelist Zane Grey whose bestselling novels defined the social meanings of the modern West fashionable translator Mary Austin whose re expressions of Indian song are contrasted with recent examples of ethnopoetics and modernist author Willa Cather who demonstrated an immaterial feeling for landscape from the Nebraska Plains to Acoma Pueblo Goodman shows how these writers as well as photographers such as Paul Strand Ansel Adams and Alex Harris exhibit different phases of the struggle between an Anglo calling to document Native and Hispanic difference and America's larger drive toward imperial mastery In critiquing photographic representations of the Southwest she argues that commercial interests and eastern prejudices boiled down the experimental images of the late nineteenth century to a few visual myths the persistence of wilderness the innocence of early portraiture and the purity of empty space An ambitious synthesis of criticism and anthropology art history and geopolitical theory Translating Southwestern Landscapes names the defining contradictions of America's most recently invented cultural space It shows us that the Southwest of these early visitors is the only Southwest most of us have ever known Notes on Blood Meridian John Sepich, 2013-05-01 Sepich offers his insight and detailed research to the less knowledgeable reader He crafts a book that will delight the McCarthy specialists Western American Literature Blood Meridian 1985 Cormac McCarthy's epic tale of an otherwise nameless kid who in his teens joins a gang of licensed scalp hunters whose marauding adventures take place across Texas Chihuahua Sonora Arizona and California during 1849 and 1850 is widely considered to be one of the finest novels of the Old West as well as McCarthy's greatest work The New York Times Book Review ranked it third in a 2006 survey of the best work of American fiction published in the last twenty five years and in 2005 Time chose it as one of the 100 best novels published since 1923 Yet Blood Meridian's complexity as well as its sheer bloodiness makes it difficult for some readers To guide all its readers and help them appreciate the novel's wealth of historically verifiable characters places and events John Sepich compiled what has become the classic reference work Notes on Blood Meridian Originally published in 1993 Notes remained in print for only a few years and has become highly sought after in the rare book market with used copies selling for hundreds of dollars In bringing the book back into print to make it more widely available Sepich has revised and expanded Notes with a new preface and two new essays that explore key themes and issues in the work This amplified edition of Notes on Blood Meridian is the essential guide for all who seek a fuller understanding and appreciation of McCarthy's finest work

Ferenc Morton Szasz: A Celebration and Selected Writings Mark T. Banker, 2018-09-17

Ferenc Morton Szasz was a lifelong student who became a professor of history at the University of New Mexico As a one year appointment at the Albuquerque campus evolved into a forty year career Szasz glimpsed the predictable unpredictability that he would eventually discern as one of history's most enduring and elusive traits The connections and consequences along the way forged a truly exceptional life and career A master of the United States history survey Szasz enthralled and inspired tens of thousands of students with energy enthusiasm provocative insights and good will Ambitious undergraduates regularly vied with graduate students for coveted seats in his upper level courses where he offered insights into World War II American religious history and popular culture Szasz's interests he insisted were the ideas of the people and how they shift over time In an era when historical scholarship became increasingly specialized he pursued an eclectic array of research interests and challenged his doctoral students to do the same The ten selections of Szasz's writings that are the primary content of this volume balance insights into history's great moments with attention to events and details often overlooked by more conventional historians Szasz's crisp accessible prose reveals both the unique and universal in the human experience and offers heartfelt glimpses into humanity's paradoxical promises and perils Back cover

Of America East and West Paul Horgan, 1985-07 No historian writes with such command of language or feeling for human nature The difference is his luminous imagination as Henry Steele Commager observes in the introduction to the newest Horgan volume Of America East West a sumptuous selection from fifteen of the earlier works many of which have been long out of print I began reading Paul Horgan more than twenty years ago and he has given me no end of pleasure ever since Whether in fiction history or biography he is a writer of large vision and manysidedness He can be serene funny elegant earthy and lyrical He can range across art opera politics natural history military history and intellectual history Narrative energy suffuses everything he writes But it is his gift of empathy that lifts his work to the level of art and gives the history he writes reality

Larger Than Life Ferenc Morton Szasz, 2006 Larger than Life offers eleven essays that touch on New Mexico's history through its people, places, and events.

Places of Memory Alan Peshkin, 2013-11-26 While visiting New Mexico, the author was struck with the opportunity the state presents to explore the school-community relationship in rural, religious, and multiethnic sociocultural settings. In New Mexico, the school-community relationship can be learned within four major culture groups: Indian, Spanish American, Mexican, and Anglo. Together, studies of these culture groups form a portrait of schooling in New Mexico, further documenting the range of ways that host communities in our educationally decentralized society use the prerogatives of local control to create schools that fit local cultural inclinations. The first of four planned volumes, this book studies the Pueblo Indians and Indian High School. The school is a nonpublic, state-accredited off-reservation boarding school for more than 400 Indian students. A large majority of the students are from Pueblo tribes, while others are from Navajo and Apache tribes. As a state-accredited school, it subscribes to curricular safety and other requirements of New Mexico. As a nonpublic school devoted to Indian students, it has the prerogative to be as distinctive as the ethnic group it serves. USE SHORT BLURB COPY FOR CATALOGS. This ethnography of the Pueblo Indians and Indian High School explores some of the ways that host communities in our decentralized society use the prerogatives of local control to create schools that fit local cultural inclinations.
