The Air That We Breathe - Book One Simon M. Zayas,2025-03-21 Father Marcellinus warns the young monk saying The air that we breathe that is the creature that we become explaining how every influence both good and evil ultimately shape us into the person that we are Based on real events this novel unfolds in a nineteenth century abbey and is about a young man who struggles to face the truth of who he really is something that all of us must ultimately do in our own lives The reader is invited into that cloister so full of passions and conflicts Simon desires only one thing since he was a little boy and that is to serve God as a priest He dreams of wearing silken gold vestments and being enveloped in great clouds of incense offering the Sacrifice to God When he is seventeen he leaves home and becomes a monk far north in the mountains of Pennsylvania His faith is genuine and he gives himself to his studies in order to become a Roman Catholic priest But not all is as he expected A sexual awakening he had not anticipated blossoms in him and boyhood dreams are shaken to the core as he wrestles with a side of himself he never counted on He falls in love in a monastic world filled with holy men mischievous souls colorful individuals and also great scoundrels A powerful visitor invites him to Rome something Simon never expected There is a dark price tag however something Simon is unaware of
