

The Middle Of The Journey

Rachel Jacoff

The Middle Of The Journey:

The Middle of the Journey Brian Swann, 1982 The Middle of the Journey Lionel Trilling, 2002-09-01 Published in 1947 as the cold war was heating up Lionel Trilling's only novel was a prophetic reckoning with the bitter ideological disputes that were to come to a head in the McCarthy era. The Middle of the Journey revolves around a political turncoat and the anger his action awakens among a group of intellectuals summering in Connecticut. The story however is less concerned with the rights and wrongs of left and right than with an absence of integrity at the very heart of the debate. Certainly the hero John Laskell, staging a slow recovery from the death of his lover and a near fatal illness of his own, comes to suspect that the conflicts and commitments involved are little more than a distraction from the real responsibilities and terrors of the common world. A detailed, sometimes slyly humorous picture of the manners and mores of the intelligentsia as well as a work of surprising tenderness and ultimately tragic import. The Middle of the Journey is a novel of ideas whose quiet resonance has only grown with time. This is a deeply troubling examination of America by one of its greatest critics. The Cambridge Companion to Dante Rachel Jacoff, 2007-02-15 A fully updated 2007 edition of this useful and accessible coursebook on Dante's works, context and reception history. Trade, Travel, and Exploration in the Middle Ages John Block Friedman, Kristen Mossler Figg, 2013-07-04 Trade, Travel, and Exploration: An Encyclopedia is a reference book that covers the people, places, technologies, and intellectual concepts that contributed to trade, travel, and exploration during the Middle Ages from the years A.D. 525 to 1492. Travel, Time, and Space in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Time Albrecht Classen, 2018-10-22 Research on medieval and early modern travel literature has made great progress which now allows us to take the next step and to analyze the correlations between the individual and space throughout time which contributed essentially to identity formation in many different settings. The contributors to this volume engage with a variety of pre-modern texts, images, and other documents related to travel and the individual's self-orientation in foreign lands and make an effort to determine the concept of identity within a spatial framework often determined by the meeting of various cultures. Moreover, objects, images, and words can also travel and connect people from different worlds through books. The volume thus brings together new scholarship focused on the interrelationship of travel, space, time, and individuality which also includes, of course, women's movement through the larger world, whether in concrete terms or through proxy travel via readings. Travel here is also examined with respect to craftsmen's activities at various sites, artists' employment for many different projects all over Europe and elsewhere, and in terms of metaphysical experiences, catabasis. Routledge Revivals: Trade, Travel and Exploration in the Middle Ages (2000) John Block Friedman, Kristen Mossler Figg, 2017-07-05 First published in 2000, Trade, Travel, and Exploration: An Encyclopedia covers the people, places, technologies, and intellectual concepts that contributed to trade, travel, and exploration during the Middle Ages from the years C.E. 525 to 1492. This comprehensive reference work contains entries on a large number of subjects, including familiar topics such as the voyages of Columbus and

Marco Polo and also information that is more difficult to find for example the traditions of travel among Muslim women and the influence of Viking travel on navigation and geographical knowledge Bringing together more than 175 scholars from a variety of disciplines it minimizes Eurocentric bias and offers extensive coverage of such topics as travel within Inner Asia Mongol society and the spread of Buddhism Including an extensive map program and more than 125 illustrations as well as bibliographies a comprehensive index and see also references Medieval Trade Travel and Exploration is a valuable reference guide for undergraduate and graduate students scholars and also the general reader Travel and Travellers of the Middle Ages Arthur Newton, 2013-11-05 Originally published between 1920 and 1970 The History of Civilization was a landmark in early twentieth century publishing It was published at a formative time within the social sciences and during a period of decisive historical discovery The aim of the general editor C K Ogden was to summarize the most up to date findings and theories of historians anthropologists archaeologists and sociologists This reprinted material is available as a set or in the following groupings Prehistory and Historical Ethnography Set of 12 0 415 15611 4 800 00 Greek Civilization Set of 7 0 415 15612 2 450 00 Roman Civilization Set of 6 0 415 15613 0 400 00 Eastern Civilizations Set of 10 0 415 15614 9 650 00 Judaeo Christian Civilization Set of 4 0 415 15615 7 250 00 European Civilization Set of 11 0 415 15616 5 700 00 Travel, Pilgrimage and Social Interaction from Antiquity to the Middle Ages Jenni Kuuliala, Jussi Rantala, 2019-10-10 Mobility and travel have always been key characteristics of human societies having various cultural social and religious aims and purposes Travels shaped religions and societies and were a way for people to understand themselves this world and the transcendent This book analyses travelling in its social context in ancient and medieval societies Why did people travel how did they travel and what kind of communal networks and negotiations were inherent in their travels Travel was not only the privilege of the wealthy or the male but people from all social groups genders and physical abilities travelled Their reasons to travel varied from profane to sacred but often these two were intermingled in the reasons for travelling The chapters cover a long chronology from Antiquity to the end of the Middle Ages offering the reader insights into the developments and continuities of travel and pilgrimage as a phenomenon of vital importance Travel and Trade in the Middle Ages Fiona Macdonald, 2006 Explore how trade and travel changed the lives of medieval peoples P 4 of cover Maps and Travel in the Middle Ages and the Early Modern Period Ingrid Baumgärtner, Nirit Ben-Aryeh Debby, Katrin Kogman-Appel, 2019-03-04 The volume discusses the world as it was known in the Medieval and Early Modern periods focusing on projects concerned with mapping as a conceptual and artistic practice with visual representations of space and with destinations of real and fictive travel Maps were often taken as straightforward objective configurations However they expose deeply subjective frameworks with social political and economic significance Travel narratives whether illustrated or not can address similar frameworks Whereas travelled space is often adventurous and speaking of hardship strange encounters and danger city portraits tell a tale of civilized life and civic pride The book seeks to address the multiple ways in which maps and travel literature conceive of the world communicate a Weltbild depict space and or define knowledge The volume challenges academic boundaries in the study of cartography by exploring the links between mapmaking and artistic practices The contributions discuss individual mapmakers authors of travelogues mapmaking as an artistic practice the relationship between travel literature and mapmaking illustration in travel literature and imagination in depictions of newly explored worlds
