The Politics Of Ideas Intellectual Challenges To The Major Parties After 199:

Parties as Governments in Eurasia, 1913-1991 Ivan Sablin, Egas Moniz Bandeira, 2022-08-15 This book examines the political parties which emerged on the territories of the former Ottoman Qing Russian and Habsburg empires and not only took over government power but merged with government itself It discusses how these parties disillusioned with previous constitutional and parliamentary reforms justified their takeovers with programs of controlled or supervised economic and social development including acting as the mediators between the various social and ethnic groups in the respective territories It pays special attention to nation building through the party to institutions both constitutional and de facto and to the global and comparative aspects of one party regimes It explores the origins of one party regimes in China Czechoslovakia Korea the Soviet Union Turkey Yugoslavia and beyond the roles of socialism and nationalism in the parties approaches to development and state building as well the pedagogical aspirations of the ruling elites Hence by revisiting the dynamics of the transition from the earlier imperial formations via constitutionalism to one party governments and by assessing the internal and external dynamics of one party regimes after their establishment the book more precisely locates this type of regime within the contemporary world's political landscape Moreover it emphasises that one party regimes thrived on both sides of the Cold War and in some of the non aligned states and that although some state socialist one party regimes collapsed in 1989 1991 in other places historically dominant parties and new parties have continued to monopolize political power The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Sovereignty Under Challenge John Dickey Montgomery, Nathan Glazer, Sovereignty the authority of a state to wield ultimate power over its territory its citizens its institutions is everywhere undergoing change as states respond in various ways to the challenges posed from above and below Above the state is the widening net of international institutions and treaties dealing with human rights trade investment and monetary affairs and below it are rising claims within states from long resident groups discontented with the political order and from new migrants testing its authority Sovereignty under Challenge deals with a range of such challenges and responses analyzed in authoritative studies by leading scholars The introductory chapter sets forth the theme that sovereignty is asserted clearly but often unpredictably when governments respond to challenge It suggests ways of classifying these responses as variables that help explain the changing nature of sovereignty Part 1 The Citizen and the State treats the rising tide of dual citizenship and the concerns this arouses in the United States the work of national human rights commissions in Asia and the challenge posed to the state by the Falungong movement in China The two chapters in Part 2 The Government as Decision Maker examine Japan's response to global warming and the problems of the World Health Organization in orchestrating collaboration among Southeast Asian states in implementing infectious disease control Part 3 Sovereignty and Culture looks at conflicts engendered by outside change on indigenous economic cultural and legal institutions in India Fiji Indonesia and Malaysia The chapters in Part 4 Sovereignty and the Economy analyze the economic and cultural instability induced by Chinese migration to Russia s far east the impact on state sovereignty brought about by transnational regulatory campaigns and social activism the question of indigenous land rights in the Philippines and the impact of transnational corporations on information technology in Asia A concluding chapter offers a global assessment of the current status of state sovereignty John D Montgomery director of the Pacific Basin Research Center of Soka University of America is also Ford Foundation Professor of International Studies Emeritus at Harvard University He is the author of Forced to Be Free The Artificial Revolution in Germany and Japan The Politics of Foreign Aid American Experience in Southeast Asia and Aftermath Tarnished Outcomes of American Foreign Policy Nathan Glazer is Professor of Education and Sociology Emeritus at Harvard University He is co editor of the journal The Public Interest and the author most recently of The Limits of Social Policy and We Are All Multiculturalists Now Annual Catalogue Massachusetts Institute of Technology,1955 General Catalogue Massachusetts Institute of Technology,1954 A History of the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Mark Tessler,2009-03-24 Mark Tessler s highly praised comprehensive and balanced history of the Israeli Palestinian conflict from the earliest times to the present updated through the first years of the 21st century provides a constructive framework for understanding recent developments and assessing the prospects for future peace Drawing upon a wide array of documents and on research by Palestinians Israelis and others Tessler assesses the conflict on both the Israelis and the Palestinians terms New chapters in this expanded edition elucidate the Oslo peace process including the reasons for its failure and the political dynamics in Israel the West Bank and Gaza at a critical time of transition Congressional Record United States.
