Haar, 2002 Provides an inside view of the PTA and its mission giving background information political agendas and insight into its future The Politics of Evil Clifton Crais, 2002-10-17 In The Politics of Evil Clifton Crais provides a unique interpretation of South African history power culture and resistance The Politics of Fair Trade Sean Ehrlich, 2018-04-04 The Politics of Fair Trade argues that fair trade is more than just labels on specialty coffee products Nor is fair trade just protectionism in disguise Rather fair trade is opposition to unrestricted trade based on sincere concerns about environmental and labor conditions abroad Fair traders are not trying to protect jobs or the economy at home but do not want to see workers exploited and the environment degraded in their trading partners Academics and policymakers are ill equipped to deal with fair trade concerns because they wrongly assume trade preferences run along a single dimension from free trade to protection This book introduces a multidimensional theory of trade policy preferences arguing that people can oppose trade for different and unrelated reasons The book then demonstrates using public opinion data in the U S and EU and Congressional voting data in the U S that fair traders are sincere and not simply protectionists The book demonstrates why fair trade poses a threat to free trade and argues that free traders should include stronger and enforceable labor and environmental standards in trade agreements in order to win the support of fair traders Doing so will enable free trade to continue while also helping to improve conditions in developing countries satisfying the concerns of both free traders and fair traders The Politics of Transatlantic Trade Negotiations Jean-Frederic Morin, Tereza Novotná, Frederik Ponjaert, Mario Telò, 2016-03-09 By focusing on the wider process of negotiations this novel volume presents the first systematic analysis of the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership TTIP The authors include outstanding scholars and relevant practitioners from across disciplines and various academic institutions around Europe and North America but also from outside of the transatlantic basin While presenting a thorough examination of the process of TTIP negotiations the volume is divided into four parts with each part examining a broader theme and offering three or four shorter exploratory chapters that are accessible to academics students policy makers and a wider audience The volume explores historical and theoretical aspects of TTIP with chapters by Gamble Keohane and Morse Tel the beginnings of the TTIP talks and the role of individual actors Mayer Novotn D r and Lechner Strange TTIP s possible knock on effects and consequences for third parties Aggarwal and Evenett Duchesne and Ouellet Zhang Ponjaert as well as impact on multilateral institutions and regimes complexes Mavroidis Mortensen Meunier and Morin Pauwelyn The authors highlight dynamics which underline the relationship between the United States and the European Union and argue that TTIP promises to have vast implications not just for economics but global governance and international system The Politics of Education Reform in China's Hong Kong Sonny Shiu-Hing Lo, Chung Fun Steven Hung, 2022-03-31 Education reform has Bennett, 2017-12-02 The past two decades have seen the growth of well coordinated networks of political activists who have managed to obtain hundreds of millions of taxpayers dollars for political lobbying Although federal regulations prohibit such activities loopholes in the law allow these monies to be masked as private resources State and federal taxpayers monies fund the lobbying efforts of private advocacy groups on both the political left and the right In Tax Funded Politics James Bennett argues that governmental agencies rather than combating these abuses aid and abet them in order to increase their own size and scope Drawing on a broad range of examples Bennett shows how the ideals of the nation s Founding Fathers have been subverted by molding and manipulating the will of the people through government orchestrated propaganda Government agencies far from being indifferent to self aggrandizement and the consolidation of wealth and power are concerned with their own self interest whether it is enhancing their budget or supporting a particular political agenda Likewise nonprofit entities claim to operate solely in the public interest but also engage in political advocacy and lobbying activities But when charities do the lobbying blatant self interest is wrapped in the halo of the public interest Tax Funded Politics exposes dozens of mutually beneficial arrangements between government and charities involving hundreds of millions of dollars It then explores their implications Groups that receive government funds are loath to criticize failed government programs and are advocates for the expansion of the agencies that provide their support Even charities learn not to bite the hand that feeds them Although the vast majority of the funds are directed to nonprofit groups on the left of the political spectrum so called conservative organizations have also sought and received taxpayers funds despite promise to get g The Politics of Leverage in International Relations H.
