Department of Bibliography,1978 Truth, Politics, Morality Cheryl Misak,2002-02-07 Cheryl Misak argues that truth ought to be reinstated to a central position in moral and political philosophy She argues that the correct account of truth is one found in a certain kind of pragmatism a true belief is one upon which inquiry could not improve a belief which would not be defeated by experience and argument This account is not only an improvement on the views of central figures such as Rawls and Habermas but it can also make sense of the idea that despite conflict pluralism and the expression of difference our moral and political beliefs aim at truth and can be subject to criticism Anyone interested in a fresh discussion of political theory and philosophy will find this a fascinating read The Asian Journal of Public Administration ,1996 Technocracy and Political Truth Guido Niccolò Barbi,2025-09-02 The inability to envision political alternatives or to use Arendt s terminology to make new beginnings is a key component of today s democratic crisis In its first part this study shows that this situation results from the growing technocratization of both government and the democratic public sphere which hinders the ability to form new political judgments By analyzing rationalized bureaucracy which substitutes automated procedures for political decision and mass democracy which permits the infinite expansion of the administration s purview an account of technocracy as administrative non political rule is constructed The book s second part expands on this diagnosis by examining how political judgment differs from epistemic reasoning This examination puts into dialogue Arendt Kant and Vico reviving a humanist understanding of common sense sensus communis and ingenuity ingenium This allows us to rethink political judgment as both cognitively immediate and reflectively plural showcasing how technocratic decision making illegitimately delimits the horizon for political judgments and new beginnings Encounter Stephen Spender,Irving Kristol,1972
