The Murmuring Stories of the Priestly School David Frankel, 2014-09-03 This book deals with the stories of Israelite complaint or murmuring in the wilderness found in the books of Exodus and Numbers that were composed and edited by the priesthood of ancient Israel It discusses the significance of the theme of rebellion and complaint for the ancient priests and analyses the part they played in the development of the theme in the Pentateuch After a general introduction on the theme of murmuring and on the Priestly School the book goes on to analyze four major priestly texts the manna story Exodus 16 the story of the Scouts Numbers 13 14 the story of the rebellions surrounding the figure of Korah Numbers 16 17 and the story of the Waters of Merivah Numbers 20 The significance of the book is two fold First it develops a methodology that allows one to discriminate between early priestly narrative materials and later priestly editorial supplementation Second the work demonstrates the antiquity of the priestly narrative lore in the Pentateuch and the significant role which the priests played in creating and developing major narrative traditions in ancient Israel

Eclipse of Action Richard Halpern, 2017-03-13 According to traditional accounts the history of tragedy is itself tragic following a miraculous birth in fifth century Athens and a brilliant resurgence in the early modern period tragic drama then falls into a marked decline While disputing the notion that tragedy has died this wide ranging study argues that it faces an unprecedented challenge in modern times from an unexpected quarter political economy Since Aristotle tragedy has been seen as uniquely exhibiting the importance of action for human happiness Beginning with Adam Smith however political economy has claimed that the source of happiness is primarily production Eclipse of Action examines the tense relations between action and production doing and making in playwrights from Aeschylus Marlowe Shakespeare and Milton to Beckett Arthur Miller and Sarah Kane Richard Halpern places these figures in conversation with works by Aristotle Smith Hegel Marx Hannah Arendt Georges Bataille and others in order to trace the long history of the ways in which economic thought and tragic drama interact

Wallace Stevens and the Poetics of Modernist Autonomy Gül Bilge Han, 2019-06-27 Wallace Stevens and the Poetics of Modernist Autonomy presents a rethinking of modernist claims to autonomy by focusing on the work of Wallace Stevens one of the most renowned poets of the twentieth century By showing how multiple socio political currents underlie and motivate Stevens version of autonomy the book challenges the commonly received accounts of the term as art and literature s escape from the world It provides new and close readings of Stevens work including poems from different stages of the poet s career It re energizes a tradition of historicist readings of Stevens from the 1980s and 1990s The study of Stevens work in this book is developed in constant dialogue with current studies in modernism and aesthetic theory particularly those offered by Jacques Rancière and Alain Badiou The book explores the question of autonomy in Stevens exploration of the aesthetic and social domains and the vexed issue of his poetry s relation to philosophical thinking Does the New Testament Imitate Homer? Dennis R. MacDonald, 2008-10-01 In this provocative challenge to prevailing views of New Testament sources Dennis R MacDonald argues that the origins of passages in the book of Acts are to be found not in early Christian legends but in the epics of Homer MacDonald focuses on four passages in the book of Acts examines their potential parallels in the Iliad and concludes that the author of Acts composed them using famous scenes in Homer s work as a model Tracing the influence of passages from the Iliad on subsequent ancient literature MacDonald shows how the story generated a vibrant mimetic literary tradition long before Luke composed the Acts Luke could have expected educated readers to recognize his transformation of these tales and to see that the Christian God and heroes were superior to Homeric gods and heroes Building upon and extending the analytic methods of his earlier book The Homeric Epics and the Gospel of Mark MacDonald opens an original and promising appreciation not only of Acts but also of the composition of early Christian narrative in general The Master of Signs Alexander Hollmann, 2011 In Herodotus s Histories almost anything is capable of being invested with meaning human speech gifts markings and even the human body This book represents an unprecedented examination of signs and their interpreters as well as the terminology Herodotus uses to describe sign transmission reception and decoding WOODUN INDIANS 2nd Edition Gary Oliver, 2021-09-23 Woodun Indians Cop 26 Edition A beautiful thought provoking collection of rhymes poems and stories by world renowned author Gary Oliver Forewords and Epilogue by Extinction Rebellion and Global Witness The book is published by Quhwah Publications about climate change and humanities battle for survival at a time of Global uncertainty Woodun Indians is a deep and thoughtful poetics of human expression regarding the overriding issue of our times A post industrial post technological post modern world in crisis that now exists on the precipice of disaster a disaster of its own making This collection of work from Gary Oliver internationally renowned verbal artists lyric smith performance poet and best selling author displays an earthy realism a simplicity and directness in dealing with these complex issues Gary hopes that these global stories urban rhymes and eco poetry will have the effect of binding the reader closer to the planet by making them think Who knows you might want to go right out and save the planet instead of going shopping The Breaking of Style Helen Vendler, 1995 Lucid and elegant a tour de force A O Scott Nation Three lectures on the fraught process of poetic development from a titan of contemporary criticism Style is the material body of lyric poetry To cast off an earlier style is to commit an act of violence against the creative self Why do poets so often make these dramatic breaks In her 1994 Richard Ellman Lectures Helen Vendler investigates poets motives for inventing a new voice along with their means of doing so Exploring three archetypal ruptures she yields a new view of the interplay of moral emotional and intellectual forces in each poet s work Gerard Manley Hopkins s invention of sprung rhythm marks a radical break with his early style Rhythm Vendler shows us is at the heart of Hopkins s aesthetic and sprung rhythm is his symbol for danger difference and the shock of the beautiful In Seamus Heaney s work she identifies clear shifts in grammatical atmosphere from one poem to the next from nounness to the betweenness of an adverbial style shifts whose moral and political implications come under scrutiny here And finally Vendler looks at Jorie Graham s departure from short lines to numbered lines to squared long lines of sentences marking a move from deliberation to cinematic freeze framing to coverage each with its own meaning in this poet s career Throughout Vendler reminds us that what distinguishes successful poetry is a mastery of language at all levels including the rhythmic the grammatical and the graphic A lucid reading of three poets and a superb exposition of the craft of poetry The Breaking of Style revives our lapsed sense of what style means
