Twitchell, 2006-03-21 If you ask men if they spend any time hiding they usually look at you as if you're nuts What men hide But if you ask women whether men hide they immediately know what you mean from Where Men Hide Where Men Hide is a spirited tour of the dark and often dirty places men go to find comfort camaraderie relaxation and escape Ken Ross's striking photographs and James Twitchell's lively analysis trace the evolution of these virtual caves and question why they are rapidly disappearing Ross documents both traditional and contemporary male haunts such as bars barbershops lodges pool halls strip clubs garages deer camps megachurches the basement Barcalounger and Twitchell examines their provenance purpose and appeal He finds that for centuries men have met with each other in underground lairs and clubhouses to conduct business or in the case of strip clubs and the modern rec room to bond and indulge in shady entertainments In these secret dens certain rules are abandoned while others are obeyed However

Twitchell sees this less as exclusionary behavior and more as the result of social anxiety when women want to get together they just do it when men get together it s a production Drawing on literary historical and pop cultural sources Twitchell connects the places men hide with figures like Hemingway and Huck Finn Frederick Jackson Turner s theory of the American frontier and the mythological interpretations of Joseph Campbell and Robert Bly Instead of blaming the disappearance of the man cave solely on feminism simple fair play or the demands of Title IX Twitchell believes this evaporation is due as well to the rise of solitary pursuits such as driving watching television and playing videogames By blending together anecdote research and keen observation Ross and Twitchell bring this little discussed and controversial phenomenon to light The Power of a Praying Husband Stormie Omartian,2002 The Power of a Praying Wife Stormie Omartian,2014-02-01 MORE THAN 10 MILLION COPIES SOLD God Can Work Powerfully Through a Praying Wife Today s challenges can make a fulfilling marriage seem like an impossible dream Yet God delights in doing the impossible if only we would ask Stormie Omartian shares how God can strengthen your marriage as you pray for your husband concerning key areas in his life including his spiritual walk his emotions his role as a leader his security in work his physical protection his faith and his future You will be encouraged by Stormie s own experiences along with the Bible verses and sample prayers included in each chapter Join the millions of women who have been blessed by this life changing look at the power of a wife s prayers Branded Nation James B. Twitchell,2004-09-08 Branding says James Twitchell is nothing more than commercial storytelling brands are the stories that are associated with products For example the special taste of Evian says Twitchell is in the brand not the water Branding has become so successful so ubiquitous that even institutions that we thought were above branding antithetical to branding have succumbed Such cultural institutions as religion higher education and the art world have learned to love Madison Avenue or lose market share Of course most ministers university presidents and museum directors will insist that branding has nothing to do with them but as Twitchell brilliantly demonstrates in this witty insightful examination of three of our most important cultural institutions wherever supply exceeds demand branding follows The rise of the megachurch epitomizes branding in religion From its inception the megachurch was designed not to compete with other churches but to bring in the unchurched especially men worshippers who might otherwise be home watching television or strolling through the mall on a Sunday morning The megachurches have been phenomenally popular none more so than Willow Creek Community Church just south of Chicago one of the oldest megachurches which Twitchell analyzes in Branded Nation Colleges and universities have embraced branding as they have grown more alike Especially among the top schools in the country the student bodies the faculties often even the campuses themselves are practically interchangeable What distinguishes each school is the story it tells about itself Now every institution of higher learning has its image organizers its brand managers usually in the admissions or development offices whose job it is to make their institution seem different from all the rest Even museums with their multimillion dollar Monets have seen the advantages of branding The blockbuster exhibitions often put familiar paintings in a new context that is they provide a new narrative branding the art Museums keep expanding their stores placing them not just near the entrance on the ground floor but throughout the museum in the galleries themselves Some museums such as the Guggenheim even franchise themselves turning the institution itself into a brand In short high culture is beginning to look more and more like the rest of our culture In perhaps his most subversive observation Twitchell doesn't condemn the branding of cultural institutions On the contrary he believes that branding may be invigorating our high culture bringing it to new audiences making it a more integral part of our lives Not since Bobos in Paradise has there been such a trenchant provocative analysis of our world The Power of a Praying® Parent Stormie Omartian,2014-02-01 Why Leave Your Child's Life to Chance When You Can Give It to God Stormie Omartian and her husband Michael spent 20 years raising their children and more than 40 years praying for them Now in 32 short easy to read chapters Stormie shares how you can pray through each stage of your child's life from early childhood to adulthood Learn how to put your child's life in God's loving hands in such areas as his or her safetywalk with Godsuccess in schoolfriendsfamily relationships gifts and talents It's never too late to discover the joy that comes from being a part of God's work in your child's life You don't have to be a perfect parent But you do need to be a praying parent And you can do that
