Mary and the Art of Prayer Rachel Fulton Brown, 2017-11-21 Would you like to learn to pray like a medieval Christian In Mary and the Art of Prayer Rachel Fulton Brown traces the history of the medieval practice of praising Mary through the complex of prayers known as the Hours of the Virgin More than just a work of comprehensive historical scholarship the book asks readers to immerse themselves in the experience of believing in and praying to Mary Mary and the Art of Prayer crosses the boundaries that modern scholars typically place between observation and experience between the world of provable facts and the world of imagination suggesting what it would have been like for medieval Christians to encounter Mary in prayer Mary and the Art of Prayer opens with a history of the devotion of the Hours or Little Office of the Virgin It then guides readers in the practice of saying this Office including its invitatory Ave Maria antiphons psalms lessons and prayers The book works on several levels at once It provides a new methodology for thinking about devotion and prayer a new appreciation of the scope of and audience for the Hours of the Virgin a new understanding of how Mary functions theologically and devotionally and a new reading of sources not previously taken into account A courageous and moving work it will transform our ideas of what scholarship is and what it can accomplish The Art of Accompaniment Colleen Campbell, Thomas Carani, 2019-10-10 The Art of

McNamara has taken a new vital approach to effective socially oriented Christian living in tune with the needs and demands of our times He takes for his theme the basic traditional truth grace builds upon rather than destroys human nature and develops this theme with extraordinary understanding and eloquence The first chapter Becoming Human sets the tone of the book For Father McNamara the sanctifying process is the humanizing process and the way by which one can cultivate the art of being human within oneself He then probes into the very roots of the conditioning processes which daily shape our lives and poses for the reader some incisive questions which demand reflection and inner search Discussions on faith hope love religion mental prayer and spiritual growth follow The final chapters on leisure and leadership are especially provocative since they direct the reader's attention to where the responsibility for the self accomplishment of this art truly lies Father McNamara has the knack of putting his finger directly on the problems of today's living THE ART OF BEING HUMAN does not pretend to have all the answers but it goes a long way toward taking the reader in the right direction Here is a book to read to ponder and to act as its message challenges us to do Magnificat The Arts of Learning and Communication

Benedict M. Ashley, 2009-09-01 The present book is a tool for the teaching of the liberal arts in high school or in the freshman year of college for those students whose high school studies were inadequate It is intended to be at once a handbook and a textbook As a handbook it should be used by the student throughout his four years in high school in every course Every teacher in the school should insist that in each subject of the curriculum the processes of definition statement and argumentation outlined here should be exactly practiced in the student's reading recitation discussion and examination for that subject In this way the transfer of training can be made explicit and effective On the other hand this work is also a textbook to assist in the learning of these logical processes The most appropriate place for its use is in the customary English courses Here it will not replace the customary material but it will serve as a guide for teacher and student in using material to develop the liberal arts

Tending the Fire That Burns at the Center of the World David F. White,2022-07-29 Tending the Fire at the Center of the World engages the central question of Christian formation that is what kind of knowing is most likely to awaken and sustain Christian faith This book seeks to reclaim aesthetics beauty and creativity as the church s most native theological way of knowing and being which participates with God s own glory and creativity This book traces the prominence of aesthetics up until the dawn of the Enlightenment including recent theologians who reclaim aesthetics for theology and formation The book elaborates the aims and techniques of aesthetic approaches to teaching and learning in the church Finally this book cautions against overly determined rationalisms and moralisms that do not retain a sense of wonder delight and openness in the church s teaching liturgy and proclamation In this view the church does not simply regurgitate familiar texts political tropes or flattened doctrines but breaks into the world as Christ s body a parable a song a flash mob interrupting business as usual giving new expression to acts of care repentance forgiveness joy and communion awake to the beauty of God s gifts and inviting our worship
