The Asphalt Jungle A Screenplay:

The Asphalt Jungle Ben Maddow, John Huston, 1980 Dore Schary then head of production at Metro Goldwyn Mayer bought The Asphalt Jungle while it was still in manuscript in an effort to match the success Warner Brothers had enjoyed with Burnett's Little Caesar and High Sierra. The choice of Ben Maddow and John Huston as screenwriters assured the artistic success of the screenplay for few writer-directors could have matched Huston's ability to develop these characters cinematically. It was a case of strength building upon strength. Burnett's fully developed characters were transformed by Maddow and Huston into a screenplay of impressive immediacy. Indeed the portrayal of the criminals in splendid performances from Louis Calhern, Sam Jaffe, Sterling Hayden, James Whitmore and Jean Hagen led Bosley Crowther to lament: "If only it all weren't so corrupt. But the characters of Burnett, Maddow and Huston don't permit us to romanticize about them or their activities. We share their professional pride in a robbery well planned and are silent accomplices to their mutual treachery." The Asphalt Jungle was nominated for best screenplay by the Motion Picture Academy and for best written American drama by the Writers Guild. John Huston received a nomination for best director by the Academy. As a novel, The Asphalt Jungle has been translated into twelve languages.

The Asphalt Jungle John Huston, 1949 Screenwriters José Guilherme Correa, 2016-07-13 Screen writing is a unique literary form. Screenplays are like musical scores in that they are intended to be interpreted on the basis of other artists' performances rather than serving as finished products for the enjoyment of their readers. They are written using technical jargon and tight spare prose to describe set directions. Unlike a novella, a script focuses on describing the literal visual aspects of the story rather than on its characters' internal thoughts. In screen writing the aim is to evoke those thoughts and emotions through subtext, action and symbolism. Prominent Hollywood script doctors include Steve Zaillian, William Goldman, Robert Towne, Mort Nathan, Quentin Tarantino etc. while many up and coming screenwriters work as ghost writers. This book is a modest catalogue of some of the most prominent screenwriters listed from A to Z. The good are sometimes bad and they can be even ugly. Many comments herein included were googled in deference to the multiplicity of information available today yet they reflect exactly or almost what I thought. An amazing thing today is how anonymous commentators on the Internet rival and even surpass the poor quality of professional media and specialised literature. It all comes down to watching the truth 24 times per second to quote Jean-Luc Godard's phrase. Not to mention that such truth may include sex scenes, violence, pedophilia etc. We know that a literary masterpiece like Henry James' Portrait of a Lady became a film of very poor quality as scripted by Laura Jones. We know conversely that a mediocre writer like Mickey Spillane inspired at least one film as remarkable as Kiss Me Deadly thanks to A.I. Bezzerides' script. As a former screenwriter, Mr. Correa must avow that he found the job most gratifying. Writing that looks effortless is often hellish to write and revise. It was something he did have to slog through but it proved particularly pleasing. Editing, discussing, finishing your work is particularly gratifying. Identifying your flaws and working to mitigate them is also gratifying. It is a general perception.
