The Entrepreneur In Local Government:

The Entrepreneur in Local Government Barbara H. Moore, 1983 Public Entrepreneurs Mark Schneider, Paul Teske, Michael Mintrom, 2011-07-01 Seizing opportunities inventing new products transforming markets entrepreneurs are an important and well documented part of the private sector landscape Do they have counterparts in the public sphere The authors argue that they do and test their argument by focusing on agents of dynamic political change in suburbs across the United States where much of the entrepreneurial activity in American politics occurs The public entrepreneurs they identify are most often mayors city managers or individual citizens These entrepreneurs develop innovative ideas and implement new service and tax arrangements where existing administrative practices and budgetary allocations prove inadequate to meet a range of problems from economic development to the racial transition of neighborhoods How do public entrepreneurs emerge How much does the future of urban development depend on them This book answers these questions using data from over 1 000 local governments The emergence of public entrepreneurs depends on a set of familiar cost benefit calculations Like private sector risk takers public entrepreneurs exploit opportunities emerging from imperfect markets for public goods from collective action problems that impede private solutions and from situations where information is costly and the supply of services is uneven The authors augment their quantitative analysis with ten case studies and show that bottom up change driven by politicians public managers and other local agents obeys regular and predictable rules Public Enterprise and Local Place John Fenwick, Lorraine Johnston, 2023-01-09 This book presents the key interactions in local government and public enterprise drawing together the challenges for local governance in the practice of public entrepreneurship and its response to collaboration place and place making Specifically this book includes the impact of local partnerships and public entrepreneurs in local policy implementation It is written by established authors bringing together their experience and practice of local partnerships and public entrepreneurship in place based strategies and will be of value to local government new forms of enterprise partnerships wider agencies and public entrepreneurship scholars as well as policymakers responsible for implementation of place based regeneration This text will be of key interest to students scholars and practitioners in public administration business administration local government entrepreneurship public sector management and more broadly to those with interests in public policy business and management political science economics urban studies and geography Networking for Science & Technology in Local Government, 1977 Local Government Management Douglas J. Charlie Karlsson, Börje Johansson, Roger Stough, 2013-06-26 In recent years policy makers have given much credence to the role of entrepreneurship in the transformation of regions As a result a new set of policy responses have emerged that focus on the support of new venture creation small business growth and idea generation and commercialization While there is a wealth of research about entrepreneurship in general less attention has been given to the development of new tools and programs in support of entrepreneurial activities and to the ways in which the emergence the character and the types of entrepreneurship policies might differ between countries In particular the transatlantic perspective is of special interest because of the pioneering role of the United States in this area and also due to the European Union s focus on economic competitiveness The contributions included in this book explore the emergence of entrepreneurship policies from a transatlantic comparative perspective and address different aspects of entrepreneurship policies including local entrepreneurship policies and the relationship between knowledge based industries and entrepreneurship policies
