as well as its social context and history The great performers both past and present are identified and discussed The Jew, The Gypsy and El Islam Sir Richard Francis Burton, 2019-11-25 Sir Richard Francis Burton's The Jew The Gypsy and El Islam is a fascinating exploration of the intersections of religion ethnicity and culture in the Middle East Written with Burton's characteristic attention to detail and cross cultural understanding the book provides a deep dive into the experiences of Jews and Gypsies living in Islamic societies Burton's fluid and engaging writing style makes the complex historical and social dynamics accessible to readers offering insights into the often marginalized communities in the region The book is a valuable resource for those interested in Islamic studies religious diversity and cultural encounters in the 19th century Middle East

Devotional Music in the Iberian World, 1450-1800 Tess Knighton, 2017-07-05 From the fifteenth century to the beginning of the nineteenth century devotional music played a fundamental role in the Iberian world Songs in the vernacular usually referred to by the generic name of villancico but including forms as varied as madrigals ensaladas tonos cantatas or even oratorios were regularly performed at many religious feasts in major churches royal and private chapels convents and in monasteries These compositions appear to have progressively fulfilled or supplemented the role occupied by the Latin motet in other countries and as they were often composed anew for each celebration the surviving sources vastly outnumber those of Latin compositions they can be counted in tens of thousands The close relationship with secular genres both musical literary and performative turned these compositions into a major vehicle for dissemination of vernacular styles throughout the Iberian world This model of musical production was also cultivated in Portugal and rapidly exported to the Spanish and Portuguese colonies in America and Asia In many cases the villancico repertory represents the oldest surviving source of music produced in these regions thus affording it a primary role in the construction of national identities The sixteen essays in this volume explore the development of devotional music in the Iberian world in this period providing the first broad based survey of this important genre Spain Walter Starkie, 1958 The People's History of the World: Races Edward Sylvester Ellis, 1902 Races Edward Sylvester Ellis, 1900
