Young people, education, and sustainable development Peter Blaze Corcoran, Philip M. Osano, 2023-09-04 Young people have an enormous stake in the present and future state of Earth Almost half of the human population is under the age of 25 If young people's resources of energy time and knowledge are misdirected towards violence terrorism socially isolating technologies and unsustainable consumption civilization risks destabilization Yet there is a powerful opportunity for society if young people can participate positively in all aspects of sustainable development In order to do so young people need education political support resources skills and hope This volume offers a global perspective on education initiatives by and for young people that promote a transition to sustainability It includes 38 essays co authored by 68 contributors from 25 nations representing a diversity of geography gender and generation The development of youth leadership has been a central concern of my professional work Young people have a lot to offer to sustainable development and should participate in planning for our planet's future This rich collection of theoretical and practical approaches captures the growing response of young people to this challenge I am particularly pleased with the attention paid to the role of often underrepresented regions of the world to the role of women and to the Earth Charter in the creating of a peaceful and sustainable future Julia Marton Lefvire Director General of IUCN International Union for Conservation of Nature and former Rector of the University for Peace This book is a rich global tapestry depicting the inter linkages among youth education and sustainable development What is particularly interesting is that it shows how education at all levels can be a powerful engine for promoting sustainability This work is an important contribution to the United Nations Decade of Education for Sustainable Development Goolam Mohamedbhai Secretary General Association of African Universities and Past President International Association of Universities This important and skillfully prepared book comes at a critical time A great strength of this volume is that it blends together theoretical and practical insights regarding education for sustainable development by and for young people It is written from diverse cultural perspectives from all world regions Readers from many fields especially young people and their teachers will find it timely and relevant I hope that it will inspire the younger generation to get involved in seeking solutions to the challenges we face

James Gustave Speth Former Administrator of the United Nations Development Programme and Dean Emeritus of the School of Forestry and Environmental Studies at Yale University It is my hope that you are inspired as I have been by Young People Education and Sustainable Development Exploring Principles Perspectives and Praxis for the stories in this volume are full of the possibilities that emerge when we honor and support young people

Ruud Lubbers Former Prime Minister of The Netherlands and past United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees     Entre Nous ,1994     IFPRI Annual Report 2005-2006: The promises and challenges of biofuels for the poor in developing countries. International Food Policy Research Institute (IFPRI),     Youth and Generation Dan Woodman,Johanna Wyn,2014-11-17 Woodman and Wyn have produced a text that offers conceptual clarity and real depth on debates in youth studies The authors skilfully guide us through the main sociological theories on young people and furnish us with sophisticated critiques from which to rethink youth and generation in the contemporary moment Professor Anoop Nayak Newcastle University The promise of youth studies is not in simply showing that class gender and race continue to influence life chances but to show how they shape young lives today Dan Woodman and Johanna Wyn argue that understanding new forms of inequality in a context of increasing social change is a central challenge for youth researchers Youth and Generation sets an agenda for youth studies building on the concepts of social generation and individualisation to suggest a framework for thinking about change and inequality in young lives in the emerging Asian Century     Community Health and Wellness - E-book Jill Clendon,Ailsa Munns,2014-10-01 Community Health both fly in fly out FIFO families     Teacher's Guide for Grades 9 and 10 ,1991
