English Novel Hist 1895-1920 David Trotter, 2022-02-22 First Published in 1993 Written specifically for students and assuming no prior knowledge of the subject David Trotter's The English Novel in History 1895 1920 provides the first detailed and fully comprehensive analysis of early twentieth century English fiction Whereas all previous studies have been rigorously selective Trotter looks at over 140 novelists across the whole spectrum of fiction from the innovations of Joyce's Ulysses through to popular mass market genres such as detective stories and spy thrillers By examining the novels in both stylistic and historical terms David Trotter looks at the ways in which writers responded to contemporary preoccupations such as the spectacle of consumption and the growth of suburbia or to anxieties about the decline of Empire racial degeneration and sexual anarchy He also challenges the view that literature of the period can be interpreted as a neat procession from realism to Modernism

The Heart of His Mystery Waterfield John Waterfield, John Waterfield, 2009-10 Shakespeare has traditionally been viewed as Queen Elizabeth's poet laureate and as the official mouthpiece of the Elizabethan age But the Elizabethan world was torn apart by the religious divisions initiated by the Reformation and vitiated by the government's merciless persecution of Catholics As it was the victors who wrote the history the English Reformation has been portrayed as a peaceful transition enjoying majority support when in fact it was nothing of the kind Elizabeth's regime was a police state which sanctioned the use of torture where Catholic priests and those who harboured them were liable to summary and bloody execution The persecution of Catholics was continued by James I evoking the violent response of the Gunpowder Plot The Heart of His Mystery examines Shakespeare's life and work against this background There is strong biographical evidence that he was himself a Catholic and a detailed survey of his plays and poems shows that his imagination was intimately bound up with his religious faith When we realise that his human compassion grew from his membership in a persecuted community we can glimpse the mystery he has encrypted in his works and we come closer to understanding the hidden heart of Shakespeare the man

Durée as Einstein-in-the-Heart Candice Lee Kent, 2024-03-29 Durée as Einstein in the Heart traces the trajectory of modernist interaction with Bergson and Einstein through the works of Virginia Woolf 1882 1941 and Mary Butts 1890 1937 It presents an overview of critical approaches that focus on time in Woolf's novels and that foreground Bergson in their analyses of Woolf It then examines how Woolf's formal experimentation and theorisation of time in Jacob's Room 1922 and Mrs Dalloway 1925 relates to Bergson's temporal theories This is followed by a discussion on the role Bergson's thinking played in the early formulation of Butts's ideas of time and an analysis of how Bergson's ideas emerge in the short story Angele au Couvent 1923 concluding by highlighting points of contrast in the engagements of Woolf and Butts The book then documents the growth of Butts's interest in Einstein's ideas and shows how she amalgamates these with Bergson's thinking in her journals and in the most intense of her fictional engagement with Einstein's ideas the novel Death of Felicity Taverner 1932 It discusses Butts's responses to the popular science genre and examines the important role played by J W N Sullivan and Arthur Eddington in the development of her understanding and interpretation of physics It concludes with a discussion of Butts's antisemitic characterisation of Kralin as purveyor of corrupted science in contrast with the Taverners who are conscious of durée and delight in the abstractions of scientific truth

Victorian Poetry and the Culture of the Heart Kirstie Blair, 2006-04-27 Victorian Poetry and the Culture of the Heart is a significant and timely study of nineteenth century poetry and poetics It considers why and how the heart became a vital image in Victorian poetry and argues that the intense focus on heart imagery in many major Victorian poems highlights anxieties in this period about the ability of poetry to act upon its readers In the course of the nineteenth century this study argues increased doubt about the validity of feeling led to the depiction of the literary heart as alienated distant outside the control of mind and will This coincided with a notable rise in medical literature specifically concerned with the pathological heart and with the development of new techniques and instruments of investigation such as the stethoscope As poets feared for the health of their own hearts their poetry embodies concerns about a widespread culture of heartsickness in both form and content In addition concerns about the heart's status and actions reflect upon questions of religious faith and doubt and feed into issues of gender and nationalism This book argues that it is vital to understand how this wider culture of the heart informed poetry and was in turn influenced by poetic constructs Individual chapters on Barrett Browning Arnold and Tennyson explore the vital presence of the heart in major works by these poets including Aurora Leigh Empedocles on Etna In Memoriam and Maud while the wide ranging opening chapters present an argument for the mutual influence of poetry and physiology in the period and trace the development of new theories of rhythm as organic and affective The Heart of Leonardo Francis Wells,2014-07-08 This book contains all of Leonardo Da Vinci s drawings on the heart and its physiology accompanied by re translations of all of the associated notes All Leonardo s drawings have been interpreted in the light of modern knowledge by a practicing cardiac clinician and anatomist The veracity of his work is proven against contemporary dissections of cardiac structure and comparison of his illustrations with contemporary images generated by Magnetic Resonance scanners and high definition ultrasound will astound the reader Perhaps the most interesting element is the re dissection of the Ox heart set against Leonardo s own drawings His place in the greater scheme of anatomical development will be put into context with his ideas of man s place in the microcosm macrocosm continuum Boxes and Books in Early Modern England Lucy Razzall,2021-08-19 In early modern England boxes furnished minds as readily as they furnished rooms shaping ideas about the challenges of interpretation and negotiations of the book itself as text and material object Engaging with recent work on material culture and the history of the book Lucy Razzall weaves together close readings of texts and objects from wills plays sermons and religious polemic to chests book bindings reliquaries and coffins She demonstrates how the material and imaginative possibilities of the box were dynamically connected in post Reformation England structuring modes of thought These early modern responses to materiality offer ways in which the discipline of book history might reframe its analysis of the material text In tracing the early modern significance of the box as matter and metaphor this book reveals the origins of some of the enduring habits of thought with which we still respond to people texts and things Political Affairs of the Heart Linda Van Netten Blimke,2022-07-15 Richly researched and engagingly written Political Affairs of the Heart traces the emergence of female sentimental travel writing in late eighteenth century Britain and posits its centrality to women s engagement with national and gender politics This study examines four travel narratives written by women between 1774 and 1795 convincingly arguing that they effectively deploy the discourse of sensibility to engage with debates around Britain s national identity during the French and American Revolutions Van Netten Blimke contends that Laurence Sterne s A Sentimental Journey 1768 which first introduced sentimental discourse to the travelogue facilitated women s gradual inclusion into this previously male dominated genre effectively paving the way for women to influence the country s sociopolitical transformation These four previously understudied works successfully combine eyewitness authority with the language of sensibility to mount impassioned interventions in their nation s perception and practice of revolutionary politics at a time when its national identity was most in flux With the Heart of a King Benton Rain Patterson,2013-12-03 Philip
