The Mckennas:

Engaging Characters Murray Smith, 2022-05-12 Characters those fictional agents populating the fictional worlds we spend so much time absorbed in are ubiquitous in our lives We track their fortunes judge their actions and respond to them with anger amusement and affection indeed the whole palette of human emotions Powerfully drawn characters transcend their stories entering into our imaginations and deliberations about the actual world acting as analogies and points of reference And yet there has been remarkably little sustained and systematic reflection on these creatures that absorb so much of our attention and emotional lives In Engaging Characters Murray Smith sets out a comprehensive analysis of character exploring the role of characters in our experience of narrative and fiction Smith's analysis focuses on film and also illuminates character in literature opera song cartoons new and social media At the heart of this account is an explanation of the capacity of characters to move us Teasing out the various dimensions of character Smith explores the means by which films draw us close to characters or hold us at a distance from them and how our beliefs and attitudes are formed and sometimes reformed by these encounters Integrating these arguments with research on emotion in philosophy psychology evolutionary theory and anthropology Engaging Characters advances an account of the nature of fictional characters and their functions in fiction imagination and human experience In this revised twenty fifth anniversary edition of Engaging Characters Smith refines and extends the arguments of the first edition with a substantial new introduction reviewing the debates on emotion empathy and film spectatorship that the book has inspired

Making Bourbon Karl Raitz, 2020-03-17 Raitz examines the rich story of distilling in its Kentucky heartland and traces its maturation from a local craft to an enduring industry William Wyckoff author of How to Read the American West While other industries chase after the new and improved bourbon makers celebrate traditions that hearken back to an authentic frontier craft Distillers enshrine local history in their branding and time tested recipes and rightfully so Kentucky's unique geography shaped the whiskeys its settlers produced and for more than two centuries distilling bourbon fundamentally altered every aspect of Kentucky's landscape and culture Making Bourbon A Geographical History of Distilling in Nineteenth Century Kentucky illuminates how the specific geography culture and ecology of the Bluegrass converged and gave birth to Kentucky's favorite barrel aged whiskey Expanding on his fall 2019 release Bourbon's Backroads Karl Raitz delivers a more nuanced discussion of bourbon's evolution by contrasting the fates of two distilleries in Scott and Nelson Counties In the nineteenth century distilling changed from an artisanal craft practiced by farmers and millers to a large scale mechanized industry The resulting infrastructure farms mills turnpikes railroads steamboats lumberyards and cooperage shops left its permanent mark on the land and traditions of the commonwealth Today multinational brands emphasize and even construct this local heritage This unique interdisciplinary study uncovers the complex history poured into every glass of bourbon A gem The depth of Raitz's research and the breadth of his analysis have produced a masterful telling of the shift from craft to industrial distilling And in telling us the story of bourbon Raitz also makes a terrific contribution to our understanding of America's nineteenth century economy David E Hamilton author of From New Day to New Deal Frank's Shadow Doug McIntyre, 2023-07-18 We leave shadows not footprints Newlywed Danny McKenna's honeymoon ends abruptly when he learns his father has died uncannily on the same day as his hero Frank Sinatra Returning home to his knotty Irish American family Danny is confronted with a painful truth while he knows everything about the famous singer his own father is a mystery Tasked with giving a eulogy for a man he hardly knows Danny sets out to uncover his dad's past an immigrant's tale of mid twentieth century America and the harsh realities of WWII lived in stark contrast to Frank Sinatra's famously extravagant life Along the way Danny's own demons nearly destroy him as he struggles to accept his father's deepest secret a journey that takes him into the heart of darkness before he learns to live in the light Fame family and forgiveness are among the many themes in Doug McIntyre's debut novel a story full of vibrant scenery gripping characters humor and profound moments of self realization Frank's Shadow is a deeply sometimes darkly human story wrapped in the trappings of a delightfully gritty love letter to New York City's less glamorous neighborhoods A Genealogical History of Irish Families John Rooney, 1895 High Weirdness Erik Davis, 2019-11-05 An exploration of the emergence of a new psychedelic spirituality in the work of Philip K Dick Terence McKenna and Robert Anton Wilson A study of the spiritual provocations to be found in the work of Philip K Dick Terence McKenna and Robert Anton Wilson High Weirdness charts the emergence of a new psychedelic spirituality that arose from the American counterculture of the 1970s These three authors changed the way millions of readers thought dreamed and experienced reality but how did their writings reflect as well as shape the seismic cultural shifts taking place in America In High Weirdness Erik Davis America's leading scholar of high strangeness examines the published and unpublished writings of these vital iconoclastic thinkers as well as their own life changing mystical experiences Davis explores the complex lattice of the strange that flowed through America's West Coast at a time of radical technological political and social upheaval to present a new theory of the weird as a viable mode for a renewed engagement with reality Psycho-Sexual David Greven, 2013-01-02 Argues that Alfred Hitchcock's themes of heterosexual male ambivalence and homoeroticism influence some of the films of directors Brian De Palma Martin Scorsese and William Friedkin Charming the Bones Ann Brimacombe Elliot, 2000 Born in 1911 to unconventional parents Margaret Matthew chose a career as an artist specializing in restorations of extinct animals This book portrays Margaret's life as the wife of noted paleontologist Edwin Ned Colbert the mother of her five sons and her later life as a respected artist Reassessing the Hitchcock Touch Wieland Schwanebeck, 2017-10-20 This volume is dedicated to the elusive category of the Hitchcock Touch the qualities and techniques which had manifested in Alfred Hitchcock's own films yet which cannot be limited to the realm of Hitchcockian cinema alone While the first section of this collection focuses on Hitchcock's own films and the various people who made important artistic contributions to them the subsequent chapters draw wider circles Case studies focusing on the branding effects associated with Hitchcockian cinema and its seductive qualities highlight the paratextual dimension of his films and the importance of his well publicized persona while the final section addresses both Hitchcock's formative period as well as other filmmakers who drew upon the Hitchcock Touch. The collection not only serves as an introduction to the field of Hitchcock scholarship for a wider audience it also delivers in depth assessments of the lesser known early period of his career in addition to providing new takes on canonical films like Vertigo 1958 and Frenzy 1972 Play It Again, Sam

Andrew Horton, Stuart Y. McDougal, 2024-03-29 This title was originally published in 1998 Play It Again Sam is a timely investigation of a topic that until now has received almost no critical attention in film and cultural studies the cinematic remake As cinema enters its second century more remakes are appearing than ever before and these writers consider the full range Hollywood films that have been recycled by Hollywood such as The Jazz Singer Cape Fear and Robin Hood foreign films including Breathless and Three Men and a Cradle which Hollywood has reworked for American audiences and foreign films based on American works among them Yugoslav director Emir Kusturica's Time of the Gypsies which is a makeover of Coppola's Godfather films As these essays demonstrate films are remade by other films Alfred Hitchcock went so far as to remake his own The Man Who Knew Too Much and by other media as well The editors and contributors draw upon narrative film and cultural theories and consider gender genre and psychological issues presenting the remake as a special artistic form of repetition with a difference and as a commercial product aimed at profits in the marketplace The remake flourishes at the crossroads of the old and the new the known and the unknown Play It Again Sam takes the reader on an eye opening tour of this hitherto unexplored territory This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1998 Focus On: 100 Most Popular French-language Films Wikipedia contributors,
