A Vision for Preaching Abraham Kuruvilla, 2015-09-15 This book by a well respected teacher of preachers develops an integrated biblical and theological vision for preaching that addresses the essentials of this most important activity in the church Drawing on influential voices from church history Abraham Kuruvilla reclaims what has been lost through the centuries and offers fresh insights showing preachers what they can aim for as an ideal in their preaching He helps preachers have a better conception of what it means to preach a fuller understanding of the divinely granted privilege of preaching and a greater excitement for the preaching ministry Concluding biblical reflections reinforce the teaching of each chapter

Leading with the Sermon William H. Willimon, 2020-02-04 In this addition to the new Working Preacher Books series prolific author William H Willimon makes the compelling case that two key pastoral tasks preaching and leadership complement correct strengthen and inform one another Preaching is the distinctive function of pastoral leaders Leadership of the church particularly during a challenging time of transition in mainline Protestantism has become a pressing concern for pastors This book shows how the practices skills and intentions of Christian preaching can be helpful to the leadership of a congregation It will also show how leadership is an appropriate expectation for sermons In preaching pastoral leaders can help a congregation face its problems and coordinate its God given resources to address those problems Sermons can be an opportunity to articulate motivate and orchestrate God s people in doing God s work in the church and in the world Leading with the Sermon includes chapters on why pastors must be leaders why preaching is such an essential task in telling the truth about the gospel how preaching makes better leaders and how better leaders make better preachers

The Peoples' Sermon Shauna K. Hannan, 2021-11-09 The proclamation of the gospel is the responsibility of the baptized rather than the privilege of the ordained Preaching is not a solo endeavor It is a communal practice a ministry of the whole congregation that is most faithful when the process is shared In The Peoples Sermon Shauna K Hannan argues that it is no longer faithful for a preacher to craft a sermon in isolation step into the pulpit literally or metaphorically on Sunday morning offer a one sided monologue and on Monday start all over alone with the process of researching and writing in preparation for the following Sunday Hannan s goal is to create vital worshipping communities where all know and live out their roles in the preaching ministry of the congregation where both clergy and laity are empowered and equipped in their roles before during and after the sermon She encourages readers to reflect on what preaching is and why the church engages in this practice and to explore various roles in the preaching ministry of the congregation She guides readers and their communities through a process that equips hearers to fulfill their active roles in the preaching ministry of the congregation The Peoples Sermon dares to suggest that preaching is most faithful when it is collaborative Pastors do not own the pulpit they steward it

Transformational Preaching David M. Brown, 2003-02 Transformational Preaching Theory and practice is a comprehensive textbook for the beginning student of preaching the graduate student in pulpit discourse or the seasoned preacher Seeking to reclaim the pulpit for biblical preaching the book counteracts the popular teaching approach that is common today and argues that preaching must be persuasive rather than informative that the preacher is central to the act of preaching and that through the preaching event both preacher and listener together fashion the message and its meaning Both theoretical and highly practical the book offers a challenging look at all aspects of the preaching ministry It contextualizes preaching in pastoral ministry and congregational worship but most significantly argues that the practice of preaching must be informed and driven by theory As such the book draws from a wide perspective of disciplines including biblical theology classical rhetoric contemporary human communication public discourse persuasion linguistics performance and orality The book s wealth of practical guidelines for every step of sermon development encourages students to apply general principles within their own contexts of ministry
