A. What are the requirements to be President of the United States? (Constitution requirement)

35 Years olds

Natural born citizens

Have been a resident of the US for 14 years

B. How does the Electoral College work?

Founding fathers established it in the constitution as a compromise between the election of the president by a vote in congress and election of popular vote of qualified citizens. Consisting of 538 electors a majority of 270 electoral votes is required to elect the president. Each elector votes for two people. Grants states electors based on the house representation and their 2 senators. If there's a tie the house votes who's president and the senate on the vice president.

C. Why if we abandon the Electoral College would this lead to disenfranchisement of most of the country? It all depends on the population, voter fraud concerns rise. There could be more potential for run off elections.

D. What are the factors for a successful candidate for President? (Wow) Understanding the public and having genuine hopes for the nation. Ability to communicate, sense of timing, openness to new ideas, ability to compromise and political courage.
