ELT in Asia in the Digital Era: Global Citizenship and Identity Suwarsih Madya, Fuad Hamied, Willy A. Renandya, Christine Coombe, Yazid Basthomni, 2018-06-27 This proceedings book captures a wide range of timely themes for readers to be able to foresee the digital era's impact on English teaching in non-English speaking countries. English used in the global environment, the frequent mobile communication, and the use of AI-based translators are bringing about dramatic changes in our English language learning and teaching. Who can provide us the wisdom to know what to do? Those scholars going through these complex environmental changes. A collection of puzzle pieces may bring us a better contour for the future than a perfectly edited book. It's indeed a pleasure reading these insightful pieces to gain wisdom for the future of ELT practices in global contexts.

English Language Education for Graduate Employability in Vietnam Tran Le Huu Nghia, Ly Thi Tran, Mai Tuyet Ngo, 2023-09-15 This open access book examines the teaching and learning of English for employability in Vietnamese higher education. Its content is framed within one country to better examine the research issues within the influence of contextual factors. This book investigates how English can contribute to the development of students' employability capitals, particularly in the aspects of human capital, social capital, cultural capital, identity capital, and psychological capital. It presents employers' and employees' perspectives of how and why English is increasingly important for career development. This book is a collection of discussions and viewpoints from teachers, students, and other stakeholders like employers, graduates, and course coordinators on current practices and their proposed improvements to prepare students for their future education, work, and life. Based on empirical evidence, this book calls for repositioning English language education within the employability agenda to elevate its status and increase stakeholders' engagement. This book contributes to current debates on advancing the effectiveness of English language education in non-English speaking countries as a response to internationalization and globalization.

Bilingual Special Education for the 21st Century: A New Interface Colón, Gliset, Alsace, Tamara O., 2022-05-13 Bilingual students with disabilities have an established right to be educated in their most proficient language However in practice many culturally and linguistically diverse students still do not receive the quality of education that they are promised and deserve Multilingual learners with disabilities must be acknowledged for the assets they bring and engaged in classroom learning that is rigorous and relevant Bilingual Special Education for the 21st Century A New Interface addresses the complex intersection of bilingual education and special education with the overlay of culturally and linguistically sustaining practices This work provides practical solutions to current dilemmas and challenges today s educators of multilingual learners with disabilities face in the classroom Covering topics such as dual language education identification practices and transition planning this book is an essential resource for special education experts faculty and administration of both K 12 and higher education pre service teachers researchers and academicians Towards a New Paradigm for English Language Teaching Hajime Terauchi,Judy Noguchi,Akira Tajino,2019-10-30 This book proposes a new paradigm for English language teaching based on concepts from English for Specific Purposes ESP research and applications as well as from growing evidence relating pattern recognition to language learning ability The contributors to the volume argue that learners should not try to become proficient all around users of idealistic native like English but instead should be realistic about what they need to acquire and how to go about achieving their specific goals The book discusses the present situation by describing the status quo of English language education in Japan taking into consideration recent trends of CLIL content and language integrated learning EMI English medium instruction and TBLT task based language teaching as well as the work done on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages CEFR It introduces new movements in ESP in Japan and in other Asian regions covering topics ranging from genre analysis to corpus linguistics and presents application examples of ESP practice in a range of educational situations in Japan from the graduate school level to elementary and middle school contexts It also offers readers application examples of ESP practice in a range of business settings and expands the discussion to the global sphere where EAP and ESP are gaining importance as the number of ELF English as a Lingua Franca speakers continue to increase The book will be of great interest to academics researchers and post graduate students working in the fields of EFL and ESL
