Sleeping With The Pastor A Testimony Of An Abusive Marriage:

Sleeping with the Pastor Toni Graham, 2005-12 As a Christian woman who suffered years of emotional abuse from my preaching spouse I have discovered that I m not alone Millions of Christian women stay in an abusive marriage because they are taught it is a sin to get a divorce As much as the Lord doesn t like divorce He does not want us to live in an abusive marriage You don t have to stay there and suffer in silence while your husband has an affair shows severe mood swings and verbally abuse you and all this is before he get up the preach to the congregation We are princess of the King we deserve the best that our Father has to offer Jesus came to save us from our sins but he also came to heal us to provide for us be it physically or emotionally God is still delivering his people from the hands of Pharaoh today I wanted to let women know that there is someone who understands and who s been there As I frantically search within the church walls for a woman who would give me the right advice and all I ran up against are women who stayed until their spouse died or they are still in the abusive marriage The others never had an abusive marriage and didn t know what to say Whether you stay or go this book is not to help you make up your mind but to just share my personal discover of my marriage to a minister that know matter how I tried to keep it together fell apart anyway Be encouraged and seek the Lord s guidance and your life GOD IS STILL IN CONTROL

Self-Defense and Battered Women Who Kill Robbin S. Ogle, Susan Jacobs, 2002-08-30 Battering relationships often escalate to a point where the battered woman commits homicide When such homicides occur attention is usually focused on the final violent encounter however Ogle and Jacobs argue while that act is the last homicidal encounter it is not the only one This important study argues that the battering relationship is properly understood as a long term homicidal process that if played out to the point that contrition dissipates is very likely to result in the death of one of the parties In that context Ogle and Jacobs posit a social interaction perspective for understanding the situational cultural social and structural forces that work toward maintaining the battering relationship and escalating it to a homicidal end This book details this theory and explains how to apply it in a trial setting Elements of self defense law are problematic for battered women who kill their abusers These include imminence reasonableness of the victim s perception of danger and reasonableness of the victim s choice of lethal violence and their proportionality Social interaction theory argues that once contrition dissipates imminence is constant The victim functions in an unending state of extreme tension and fear This allows us to understand the victim s view of the violence as escalating beyond control thereby increasing her reasonable perception of danger and lethality After social resources for whatever reason fail to end the violence it is then reasonable for the victim to conclude that she will have to act in her own defense in order to survive
