Contemporary Women's Ghost Stories Gina Wisker,2022-06-02 This book offers new insights on socially and culturally engaged Gothic ghost stories by twentieth century and contemporary female writers including Shirley Jackson Angela Carter Toni Morrison Ali Smith Susan Hill Catherine Lim Kate Mosse Daphne du Maurier Helen Dunmore Michele Roberts and Zheng Cho Through the ghostly body possessions and visitations women's ghost stories expose links between the political and personal genocides and domestic tyrannies providing unceasing reminders of violence and violations Women like ghosts have historically lurked in the background incarcerated in domestic spaces and roles by familial and hereditary norms They have been disenfranchised legally and politically sold on dreams of romance and domesticity Like unquiet spirits that cannot be silenced women's ghost stories speak the unspeakable revealing these contradictions and oppressions Wisker's book demonstrates that in terms of women's ghost stories there is much to point the spectral finger at and much to speak out about The Ghost in the Mirror Quintus Nordahl, The letter arrived on a Tuesday morning when the October rain drummed against Eleanor Hartwell's apartment windows like skeletal fingers tapping for entry She had been grading papers at her kitchen table red pen poised over another student's confused interpretation of Hamlet's soliloquy when the postman's knock interrupted her thoughts The envelope bore her name in elegant script the return address listing a law firm in Salem Massachusetts that she had never heard of Eleanor set down her pen and opened the letter with the same methodical care she applied to everything in her life At thirty two she had built a comfortable existence teaching English literature at the local community college living alone in her modest apartment with her books and her cat Ophelia She preferred the predictable rhythm of academic life to the chaos that had marked her childhood moving from one foster home to another after her parents died in a car accident when she was seven The letter's contents made her read it twice before the words truly sank in She had inherited a house Not just any house but a Victorian mansion in Salem from a great aunt she had never known existed Margaret Hartwell according to the lawyer's careful prose had been her father's aunt and had left the property to Eleanor as her sole surviving relative The only condition was that Eleanor must take possession within thirty days of the letter's date or the inheritance would pass to a historical preservation society Eleanor stared at the accompanying photograph of the house a imposing three story structure with ornate gingerbread trim and tall windows that seemed to watch her from the glossy surface Something about those windows made her shiver though she attributed it to the morning chill seeping through her apartment's single pane glass
