William Allan

The Ash Garden:

The Ash Garden Dennis Bock, 2002-01-08 Emiko Amai is six years old in August 1945 when the Hiroshima bomb burns away half of her face To Anton a young German physicist involved in the Manhattan Project that same bomb represents the pinnacle of scientific elegance And for his Austrian wife Sophie a Jewish refugee it marks the start of an irreparable fissure in their new marriage Fifty years later seemingly far removed from the day that defined their lives Emiko visits Anton and Sophie and in Dennis Bock's powerfully imagined narrative their histories converge The Ash Garden Dennis Bock, 2001

The Ash Garden: Hiroshima Under a Rain of Ruin Katy McCormick, 2015-02-22 The African Husbandman William Allan, 2004 The African Husbandman helped a generation of scholars and officials to appreciate that Africans agricultural practices were both more complex and more malleable than was often thought Allan's work also pioneered research methods that wedded ethnographic and ecological fieldwork in ways that demonstrated the inextricable links between social arrangements environmental conditions and land use patterns If certain facets of Allan's analysis have now come under scrutiny his general tenet that to improve agricultural prospects in Africa one first has to understand it from the cultivators point of view has only been strengthened with time As long as there are individuals struggling to make sense of African agricultural productivity The African Husbandman will remain a classic World Savannas Jayalaxshmi Mistry, Andrea Beradi, 2014-09-15 An interdisciplinary text on the world's savannas covering the geography ecology economics and politics of savanna regions Savannas are a distinct vegetation type covering a third of the world's land surface area and supporting a fifth of the world's population There has been a wide range of literature on the subject but the majority of work has focused on the ecology or development of savanna areas ignoring the wider interdisciplinary issues affecting contemporary savannas World Savannas aims to buck this trend providing students with an up to date and comprehensive introduction to the global importance of savannas Beyond Hostile Islands Daniel McKay, 2024-04-02 WINNER JAVIER COY BIENNIAL RESEARCH AWARD BEST MONOGRAPH Offers a fascinating window into how the fraught politics of apology in the East Asian region have been figured in anglophone literary fiction The Pacific War 1941-1945 was fought across the world's largest ocean and left a lasting imprint on anglophone literary history However studies of that imprint or of individual authors have focused on American literature without drawing connections to parallel traditions elsewhere Beyond Hostile Islands contributes to ongoing efforts by Australasian scholars to place their national cultures in conversation with those of the United States particularly regarding studies of the ideologies that legitimize warfare Consecutively the book examines five of the most significant historical and thematic areas associated with the war island combat economic competition internment imprisonment and the atomic bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki Throughout the central issue pivots around the question of how or whether at all New Zealand fiction writing differs from that of the United States Can a sense of islandness the tyranny of distance Mori cultural heritage or the political legacies of the nuclear free movement provide grounds for distinctive authorial insights As an opening gambit Beyond Hostile Islands puts forward the term ideological coproduction to describe how a territorially and demographically more minor national culture may accede to the essentials of a given ideology while differing in aspects that reflect historical and provincial dimensions that are important to it Appropriately the literary texts under examination are set in various locales including Japan the Solomon Islands New Zealand New Mexico Ontario and the Marshall Islands The book concludes in a deliberately open ended pose with the full expectation that literary writing on the Pacific War will grow in range and richness aided by the growth of Pacific Studies as a research area

Bookclub-in-a-Box Discusses Marilyn Herbert,Dennis Block,2005-10-17 Discusses the novel The Ash Garden

The Communist's Daughter Dennis Bock,2008-03-11 The Communist's Daughter is a sweeping novel of love and betrayal spanning the trenches of the Great War to the horrors of Spain and China Norman Bethune was a visionary whose dedication touched millions Rebelling in childhood against his father's religion he finds a calling himself saving lives on the battlefield In Republican Spain he fulfills his idealism yet before long politics destroy his romance and drive him to seek refuge in China Here in service to a man eventually known as Mao Zedong Bethune begins this account of his life and his cherished beliefs for the only person who still makes a future seem possible the daughter he has never seen

Writers on the Air Donna Seaman,2005 Vibrant interviews from the radio program Open Books

The Grass Library David Brooks,2019 A philosophical and poetic journey recounting the author's relationship with his four sheep and other animals in his home in the Blue Mountains Both memoir and eloquent testament to animal rights One of the most beautifully written books about animals I have ever read I know of nothing else like it published in this or any other country Deep sensitive charming instructive and above all humble I cannot imagine anyone reading it without coming away in some profound sense altered

Jeffrey Moussaieff Masson author of When Elephants Weep a gorgeous book Anyone who loves animals will be enchanted but it's a book that will challenge your thinking as well highly recommended ANZ LitLovers LitBlog
