The Autobiographical Fragments:

An Autobiographical Fragment and Biographical Notes Barry Cornwall, 1877 (Barry Cornwall Pseud.) An Autobiographical Fragment and Biographical Notes, with Personal Sketches of Contemporaries, Unpubl. Lyrics and Letters of Literary Friends Barry Cornwall, Bryan Waller Procter, 1877 Autobiographical Fragments Mrs. Elizabeth (Barrett) Browning, Consuming Autobiographies Claire Boyle, 2017-12-02 Since 1975 French literary writing has been marked by an autobiographical turn which has seen authors increasingly often tap into the vein of what the French term écriture de soi. This coincides paradoxically with the death of autobiography as these authors self consciously distance themselves and their writings from conventional autobiography founding a nouvelle autobiographie where the very possibility of autobiographical expression is questioned. In the first book length study in English to address this phenomenon Claire Boyle sheds a new light on this hostility toward autobiography through a series of ground breaking studies of estrangement in autobiographical works by major post war authors Nathalie Sarraute, Georges Perec, Jean Genet and Helene Cixous. She identifies autobiography as a site of conflict between writer and reader as authors struggle to assert the unknowableness of their identity in the face of a readership resolutely desiring privileged knowledge. Autobiography emerges as a deeply troubling genre for authors with the reader as an antagonistic consumer of the autobiographical self. The Autobiography Anna Robeson Brown Burr, 1909 A History of English Autobiography Adam Smyth, 2016-04-04 A History of English Autobiography explores the genealogy of autobiographical writing in England from the medieval period to the digital era. Beginning with an extensive introduction that charts important theoretical contributions to the field, this History includes wide ranging essays that illuminate the legacy of English autobiography. Organized thematically, these essays survey the multilayered writings of such diverse authors as Chaucer, Bunyan, Carlyle, Newman, Wilde and Woolf. Written by a host of leading scholars, this History is the definitive single volume collection on English autobiography and will serve as an invaluable reference for specialists and students alike. Literary Reminiscences and Autobiographical Fragments Ivan Sergeevich Turgenev, 1959 The Autobiography of Solomon Maimon Solomon Maimon, 2019-01-15 The first complete and annotated English translation of Maimon's influential and delightfully entertaining memoir. Solomon Maimon's autobiography has delighted readers for more than two hundred years from Goethe, Schiller and George Eliot to Walter Benjamin and Hannah Arendt. The American poet and critic Adam Kirsch has named it one of the most crucial Jewish books of modern times. Here is the first complete and annotated English edition of this enduring and lively work. Born into a down on its luck provincial Jewish family in 1753, Maimon quickly distinguished himself as a prodigy in learning. Even as a young child he chafed at the constraints of his Talmudic education and rabbinical training. He recounts how he sought stimulation in the Hasidic community and among students of the Kabbalah and offers rare and often wickedly funny accounts of both. After a series of picaresque misadventures, Maimon reached Berlin where he became part of the city's famed Jewish Enlightenment.

and achieved the philosophical education he so desperately wanted winning acclaim for being the sharpest of Kant's critics as Kant himself described him This new edition restores text cut from the abridged 1888 translation by J Clark Murray which has long been the only available English edition Paul Reitter's translation is brilliantly sensitive to the subtleties of Maimon's prose while providing a fluid rendering that contemporary readers will enjoy and is accompanied by an introduction and notes by Yitzhak Melamed and Abraham Socher that give invaluable insights into Maimon and his extraordinary life The book also features an afterword by Gideon Freudenthal that provides an authoritative overview of Maimon's contribution to modern philosophy

Historiography at the End of the Republic Liv Maria Yarrow, 2006-04-06 This study of six historians from the edges of the Roman world at the end of the Republic the author of I Maccabees Posidonius Diodorus Siculus Pompeius Trogus Nicolaus of Damascus and Memnon of Heraclea combines discussion of their biographical details the intellectual and elite culture in which they composed and the methodological difficulties of interpreting fragmentary texts with textual analysis of their representations of Rome These authors show remarkable unity in their acceptance of Roman hegemony Nevertheless their interpretations of Roman rule assume political significance in the light of their intentions in writing and the audiences whom they addressed They therefore provide a unique insight into the minds of the conquered peoples and the intellectual culture which allowed them to influence their conquerors
