bibliographies necrology index to dates of principal events The War for Korea, 1945-1950 Allan R. Millett,2015-02-27
When the major powers sent troops to the Korean peninsula in June of 1950 it supposedly marked the start of one of the last century s bloodiest conflicts Allan Millett however reveals that the Korean War actually began with partisan clashes two years earlier and had roots in the political history of Korea under Japanese rule 1910 1945 The first in a new two volume history of the Korean War Millett s study offers the most comprehensive account of its causes and early military operations Millett traces the war s origins to the post liberation conflict between two revolutionary movements the Marxist Leninists and the Nationalist capitalists With the U S Soviet partition of Korea following World War II each movement now with foreign patrons asserted its right to govern the peninsula leading directly to the guerrilla warfare and terrorism in which more than 30 000 Koreans died Millett argues that this civil strife fought mostly in the South was not so much the cause of the Korean War as its actual beginning Millett describes two revolutions locked in irreconcilable conflict offering an even handed treatment of both Communists and capitalists nationalists Neither movement was a model of democracy He includes Korean Chinese and Russian perspectives on this era provides the most complete account of the formation of the South Korean army and offers new interpretations of the U S occupation of Korea 1945 1948 Millett s history redefines the initial phase of the war in Asian terms His book shows how both internal forces and international pressures converged to create the Korean War a conflict that still shapes the politics of Asia
