Mary Roberts Rinehart

The Bat Bab A Sub Deb:

The Bat/Bab, a Sub-Deb Mary Roberts Rinehart, 2000-12-20 Volume 6 of The Essential Rinehart Collection presents two very special works of Mary Roberts Rinehart. The Bat is an adaptation of a Broadway play written in conjunction with Avery Hopwood. Considered Mary's finest work to date, the novel is based in part on her first work, The Circular Staircase. Someone or something is trying to frighten Cornelia Van Gorder to death. But the plucky woman doesn't scare easily. In fact, she's always longed to play detective. Until she stumbles on a corpse one storm-swept night and realizes she's involved in a deadly game with an elusive killer known as The Bat. Also included in this volume is the rare and long out of print Bab A Sub Deb. The author's most experimental work presents a first-hand account of a writing assignment; the typos are intentional that leads to tragedy and murder.

Bab: a Sub-Deb Mary Roberts Rinehart, 2017-09-20 Mary Roberts Rinehart 1876-1958 was an American writer often called the American Agatha Christie, although her first mystery novel was published 14 years before Christie's. She is considered the source of the phrase "The butler did it," although she did not actually use the phrase. She is considered to have invented the "Had I But Known" school of mystery writing. She also created a costumed supercriminal called the Bat, who was cited by Bob Kane as one of the inspirations for his Batman. Many of her books and plays were adapted for movies, such as The Bat (1926), The Bat Whispers (1930), and The Bat (1959) remake. In 1933, RCA Victor released The Bat as one of the earliest talking book recordings.

Bab: a Sub-deb Mary Roberts Rinehart, 1917 Bab, only twenty months younger than her sister, rebels against her treatment by her family. Set during the pre-World War I era when women's roles were rapidly changing, Bab determines to assert her independence through this series of misadventures and mysteries. "I am writing all of this as truthfully as I can. I am not defending myself. What I did, I was driven to, as any one can see. It takes a real shock to make the average family wake up to the fact that the youngest daughter is not the family baby at seventeen. All I was doing was furnishing the shock. If things turned out badly as they did, it was because I rather overdid the thing. That is all. My motives were perfectly irreproachable." Bab. And this Bab feels through all of her hilarious and at times dangerous adventures to prove she is not just a Sub-Deb. Written by that master of mystery and humor, Mary Roberts Rinehart, Bab is a delightful combination of both.

When a Man Marries/The Window at the White Cat Mary Roberts Rinehart, 2000-12 The Essential Rinehart Collection continues with Volume 2 of Mary Roberts Rinehart's funny and fast-paced novels. When a man marries, his troubles begin. The old nursery rhyme holds true for Jimmy Wilson. First his wife leaves him. Then on the anniversary of his divorce, his friends gather to cheer him up. Only everything goes dreadfully wrong. The Window at the White Cat deals with high-level corruption and turns on some astonishing coincidences. These well-written stories, which combine mystery and adventure, demonstrate Rinehart's tremendously vivid powers as a storyteller. These mysteries will leave you eager to read the other volumes in this series.
