Niche of Lamps (Miskat al-Masabih) 1-4 Vol 4 Al Khatib Al Tabrizi, 2012-01-01 The Macedonian Empire James R. Ashley, 2004-03-19 The Macedonian Empire lasted only 36 years beginning with Philip II's assumption of the throne in 359 B C and ending with the death of his son Alexander the Great in 323 B C In that span the two leaders changed the map in the known world Philip established new tactics that forever ended the highly stylized mode that had characterized Classic Greek warfare and Alexander's superb leadership made the army an unstoppable force This work first examines the 11 great armies and three great navies of the era along with their operations and logistics The primary focus is then on each campaign and significant battle fought by Philip or Alexander detailing how the battles were fought the tactics of the opposing armies and how the Macedonians were able to triumph Gendering the Hadith Tradition Sofia Rehman, 2024-01-23 Gendering the ad th Tradition presents for the first time a partial translation and study of Imam Badr al Din al Zarkashi's work al Ijaba li Iradi ma Istadraktahu Aisha Ala al Sahabah The Corrective Aisha's Rectification of the Companions It critically analyses from the perspective of hadith criticism a number of sections presenting Aisha's refutations and corrections of key Companions including Umar b al Khattab Abdullah b Abbas Zayd b Thabit and Abu Hurayra applying classical hadith methodology to the scrutiny of narrators by way of impugment and validation al jarh wa al tadil in an effort to re-construct and re-present Aisha as a central authority in Islamic knowledge production This work constitutes a major rethinking of the Muslim hadith and jurisprudential traditions by evaluating how Aisha responded to hadiths that were circulating and being ascribed often incorrectly as authoritative statements of the Prophet Muhammad From her critique of overwhelmingly male Companions of the Prophet the study elicits a methodology for hadith criticism which is sure to challenge classical approaches Sofia Rehman unearths the scholarly acumen of this great female Companion and mother of the believers in her discussion of several legal positions which Aisha held in contradistinction to many of the male authorities among the Companions This interdisciplinary study serves as a model for how the voice of Aisha may be given renewed life and significance in the way it re-centres her traditions and thinking A crucial aspect is its contributing to expanding the horizons of multiple Islamic disciplines A major contribution to the study of hadith lies in the development of an emergent methodology of Aisha in the scrutiny of the actual statements matn of traditions not just the chains of transmission isnad The contributions of this study to the development of the Muslim legal tradition fiqh also lies in a framework that emerges from this research based on the pattern of how Aisha approaches juridical matters The implications for this are many especially regarding women and their spiritual and daily life and practice Just Fodder Josh Milburn, 2022-07-19 Animal lovers who feed meat to other animals are faced with a paradox perhaps fewer animals would be harmed if they stopped feeding the ones they love Animal diets do not raise problems merely for individuals To address environmental crises health threats and harm to animals we must change our food systems and practices And in these systems animals too are eaters Moving beyond what humans should eat and whether to count animals as food Just Fodder answers ethical and political questions arising from thinking about animals as eaters Josh Milburn begins with practical dilemmas about feeding the animals closest to us our pets or animal companions The questions grow more complicated as he considers relationships with more distance questions about whether and how to feed garden birds farmland animals who would eat our crops and wild animals Milburn evaluates the nature and circumstances of our relationships with animals to generate a novel theory of animal rights Looking past arguments about what we can and cannot do to other beings Just Fodder asks what we can should and must do for them laying out a fuller range of our ethical obligations to other animals
