J. van Binsbergen, 2003 This book brings together fifteen essays investigating aspects of interculturality Like its author it operates at the borderline between social anthropology and intercultural philosophy It seeks to make a contribution to intercultural philosophy by formulating with great precision and painful honesty the lessons deriving from extensive intercultural experiences as an anthropologist Its culminating section presents an intercultural philosophy revolving on the tenet cultures do not exist The kaleidoscopic nature of intercultural experiences is reflected in the diversity of these texts Many belong to a field that could be described as meta anthropology others are more clearly philosophical occasionally they spill over into belles lettres ancient history and comparative cultural and religious studies The ethnographic specifics supporting the arguments are diverse deriving from various African situations in which the author has conducted

Situating Globality challenges the dominant view that globalization is a primary threat to African societies and economies It explores how these societies are appropriating elements of the emerging global culture arguing the significance of this appropriation in local struggles the expression of critical thinking ideologies and ritual styles of behaviour Combining an interest for micro level processes of situating the multifaceted process of globality with the exploration of reflexivity creativity and the production of knowledge Situating Globality straddles the divide between anthropological and philosophical representations of Africa in the new world order The first section examines philosophical issues relating to the production of knowledge in and about Africa from a globalizing perspective while the other sections include case studies showing how these processes are accommodated in everyday life The Global African Omari H. Kokole, 1998 Anticipating the auspicious convergence of his 60th birthday and the 30th anniversary of his professorial debut Ali A Mazrui's students friends and colleagues seized the opportunity to critically assess the significance of the prodigious body of scholarship affectionately dubbed Mazruiana In November 1992 in Seattle Washington four panels devoted exclusively to Mazruiana were convened at the annual meetings of the African Studies Association with the added attraction of Mazrui's attendance at the convocation and his immediate personal response to the original papers presented there While no single volume could do justice to Mazrui's colossal literary output here at least is gathered the collective investigative insight of a team of well informed critics into select salient facets of this provocative but stimulating literary and intellectual phenomenon The long list of contributors to this Festschrift includes John W Harbeson Dunstan M Wai Darryl C Thomas Negussay Ayele Parviz Morewedge Hussein M Adam Alamin M Mazrui Claude E Welch Peter N Thuynsma Richard L Sklar Betty J Craige Molar Ogundipe Leslie Chaly Sawere Bujor Avari Diana Frank Omari H Kokole and Ali A Mazrui himself The Challenge of Information Technology Kenneth Richard Brown, 1983 Technology and today Technology and tomorrow New technologies intermediaries end users Special interests New technology and the developing countries The future of secondary services Closing addresses *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
