Beers, 2013-03-01 Bonded Leather binding      The Connecticut Wits, and Other Essays Henry A. Beers, 2021-05-19 In The Connecticut Wits and Other Essays Henry A. Beers presents a meticulous exploration of the literary contributions and cultural significance of the Connecticut Wits, a group of early American poets and satirists active in the late 18th and early 19th centuries. Beers employs a scholarly yet engaging literary style, blending critical analysis with biographical sketches. His essays contextualize the Wits within the broader movement of American literature, examining their impact on national identity, humor, and poetic form while drawing connections to contemporaneous literary figures. The collection showcases Beers' deep appreciation of the interplay between literature and social change, reflecting the burgeoning American consciousness during a pivotal moment in the nation's history. Henry A. Beers was an influential critic and literary historian whose extensive knowledge of American literature informed his perspectives and writings. His academic background and involvement in the literary circles of his time undoubtedly shaped his curiosity about lesser-known figures like the Connecticut Wits. Beers understood the importance of these early poets in laying the groundwork for American literary independence, prompting him to compile this essential discourse to preserve their legacy and innate wit. The Connecticut Wits and Other Essays is an essential read for scholars, students, and enthusiasts of American literature alike. Beers' insightful examinations illuminate the richness of early American literary endeavors while fostering a deeper appreciation for the context in which they emerged. This collection not only enhances understanding of the Connecticut Wits but also enriches one's perspective on the evolution of American literary traditions.      The Connecticut Wits and Other Essays \(Classic Reprint\) Henry A. Beers, 2015-07-04 Excerpt from The Connecticut Wits and Other Essays The present volume is the first work published by the Yale University Press on the Oliver Baty Cunningham Memorial Publication Fund. This Foundation was established May 8, 1920, by a gift from Frank S. Cunningham Esq. of Chicago to Yale University in memory of his son Captain Oliver Baty Cunningham, 15th United States Field Artillery, who was born in Chicago September 17, 1894, and was graduated from Yale College in the Class of 1917. As an undergraduate, he was distinguished alike for high scholarship and for proved capacity in leadership among his fellows, as evidenced by his selection as Gordon Brown Prize Man from his class. He received his commission as Second Lieutenant, United States Field Artillery, at the First Officers Training Camp at Fort Sheridan, and in December 1917 was detailed abroad for service, receiving subsequently the Distinguished Service Medal. He was killed while on active duty near Thiaucourt, France, on September 17, 1918, the twenty-fourth anniversary of his birth.
