Krauth, 2017-07-11 Excerpt from The Conservative Reformation and Its Theology As Represented in the Augsburg Confession and in the History and Literature of the Evangelical Lutheran Church The Church of England is that part of the Reformed Church for which most affinity with the conservatism of Lutheranism is usually claimed That Church occupies a position in some respects unique First under Henry VIII ceasing to be Popish without ceasing to be Romish then passing under the in uences of genuine reformation into the positively Lutheran type then influenced by the mediating position of the school of Bucer and of the later era of Melancthon a school which claimed the ability practically to co ordinate the Lutheran and Calvinistic positions and finally settling into a system of compromise in which is revealed the in uence of the Roman Catholic views of Orders in the ministry and to some extent of the Ritual of the Lutheran tone of reformatory conservatism in the general structure of the Liturgy in the larger part of the Articles and especially in the doctrine of Baptism of the mediating theology in the doctrine of predestination and of Calvin ism in particular changes in the Book of Common Prayer and most of all in the doctrine of the Lord's Supper The Conservatism of the Church of England even in the later shape of its reform in many respects is indubitable and hence it has often been called a Lutheranizing Church But the pressure of the radicalism to which it deferred perhaps too much in the essence and too little in the form brought it to that eclecticism which is its most marked feature Lutheranizing in its conservative sobriety of modes the Church of England is very nu lutheran in its judgment of ends The conservatism of the Lutheran Reformation exalted over all pure doc trine as the divine

presupposition of a pure life and this led to an ample and explicit statement of faith While the Church of England stated doctrines so that men understood its utterances in different ways About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www forgottenbooks com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Reformation and Its Theology as Represented in the Augsburg Confession Charles Porterfield Krauth, 2015-10-02 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and The Conservative Reformation and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Its Theology Charles P.
