The Harder They Come Michael Thelwell, 1980 Noises in the Blood Carolyn Cooper, 1995-02-08 The language of Jamaican popular culture its folklore idioms music poetry song even when written is based on a tradition of sound an orality that has often been denigrated as not worthy of serious study In Noises in the Blood Carolyn Cooper critically examines the dismissed discourse of Jamaica's vibrant popular culture and reclaims these cultural forms both oral and textual from an undeserved neglect Cooper's exploration of Jamaican popular culture covers a wide range of topics including Bob Marley's lyrics the performance poetry of Louise Bennett Mikey Smith and Jean Binta Breeze Michael Thelwell's novelization of The Harder They Come the Sistren Theater Collective's Lionheart Gal and the vitality of the Jamaican DJ culture Her analysis of this cultural noise conveys the powerful and evocative content of these writers and performers and emphasizes their contribution to an undervalued Caribbean identity Making the connection between this orality the feminized Jamaican mother tongue and the characterization of this culture as low or coarse or vulgar she incorporates issues of gender into her postcolonial perspective Cooper powerfully argues that these contemporary vernacular forms must be recognized as genuine expressions of Jamaican culture and as expressions of resistance to marginalization racism and sexism With its focus on the continuum of oral textual performance in Jamaican culture Noises in the Blood vividly and stylishly written offers a distinctive approach to Caribbean cultural studies

The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi, 2016-09-05 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume's 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer George Lamming Jamaica Kincaid V S Naipaul Zoe Wicomb J M Coetzee and many others
