The Matthew 6:33 Principle Turning Your Heart To The Kingdom Of God:

The Matthew 6:33 Principle Sam Jordan, 2005-09 But seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you Matthew 6:33 At a critical turning point in Sam Jordan's life his natural desire was to have the material things referred to in the latter part of Matthew 6:33 All these things shall be added unto you things being material goods He believed in God's Word But he also believed that to follow doctrine he would have to reject any hope of being successful in life and shun all forms of entertainment This he realized was an oversimplification of what it meant to be a Christian Jordan really didn't think he could be prosperous if he trusted God As he read the entire verse he experienced a revelation that changed his whole perspective God created everything with a definitive purpose If the thing created fulfilled the created purpose it was God's promise to supply the necessary provisions That is the core teaching of Matthew 6:33 Here you will find how Sam Jordan came to realize that God has made provisions for His followers that include protection guidance wisdom and the revelation of many secret things
