The Memoirs of Elizabeth Frankenstein Theodore Roszak, 1996 Tormented by shame and anger Victor turns to the unhallowed arts that result in his misbegotten Creature the vengeful fiend who will haunt Elizabeth's fatal wedding night

Memoirs/e Frankenstein Theodore Roszak, 1997-11-11 Speculative Epistemologies John Rieder, 2021-09-15
Speculative Epistemologies is about truth effects in sf which stands for both science fiction and speculative fiction It examines six narratives one from each decade from the 1960s to the 2010s that challenge dominant assumptions about the normal the possible and the real It asks what the patterns of overlap and interference generated by texts located in border territories that make their identification as sf problematic and sometimes controversial can reveal about the dynamics of sf's multiple subcultures e.g. professionals academics and fans the complexity of the genre's communities of practice and their routes of production distribution and reception and the genre's shifting position within a broadly conceived field of literary and cultural production The speculative epistemologies in these stories are counter hegemonic ways of knowing ways of imagining knowing differently and the focus of this study is their effect on the formation of identities and communities Combining the methods of genre theory reception theory and the sociology of cultural production the readings of these six narratives trace a history of sf's increasingly feminist racially and ethnically diverse philosophically ambitious and politically engaged character from the 1960s to the present Neo-Gothic Narratives Sarah E. Maier, Brenda Ayres, 2020-03-31 Neo Gothic Narratives defines and theorises what exactly qualifies as such a text what mobilises the employment of the Gothic to speak to our own times whether nostalgia plays a role and whether there is room for humour besides the sobriety and horror in these narratives across various media What attracts us to the Gothic that makes us want to resurrect reinvent echo it Why do we let the Gothic redefine us Why do we let it haunt us Does it speak to us through intertextuality self reflectivity metafiction immersion affect Are we reclaiming the history of women and other subalterns in the Gothic that had been denied in other forms of history Are we revisiting the trauma of English colonisation and seeking national identity Or are we simply tourists who enjoy cruising through the otherworld The essays in this volume investigate both the readerly experience of Neo Gothic narratives as well as their writerly pastiche The Best Novels of the Nineties Linda Parent Leshner, 2015-11-17 This reader's guide provides uniquely organized and up to date information on the most important and enjoyable contemporary English language novels Offering critically substantiated reading recommendations careful cross referencing and extensive indexing this book is appropriate for both the weekend reader looking for the best new mystery and the full time graduate student hoping to survey the latest in magical realism More than 1 000 titles are included each entry citing major reviews and giving a brief description for each book The Mental Anatomies of William Godwin and Mary Shelley William Dean Brewer, 2001 A number of their mental anatomies reflect the influence of Jean Jacques Rousseau's Confessions and his conceptions of mental transparency sincerity and environmental conditioning Because his primary focus is on Godwinian and Shelleyan perspectives on the mind and its operations Brewer avoids twentieth century psychological terminology and ideas in his discussions of their fiction Dwellings of Enchantment Bénédicte Meillon,2020-10-27

Dwellings of Enchantment Writing and Reenchanting the Earth offers ecocritical and ecopoetic readings that focus on multispecies dwellings of enchantment and reenchant our rapport with the more than human world It sheds light on the marvelous entanglements between humans and other life forms coexisting with us entanglements that when fully perceived call onto humans to shift perspectives on both the causes and solutions to current ecological crises Working against the disenchantment of humans relationships with and perceptions of the world entailed by a modern ontology this book illustrates the power of ecopoetics to attune humans to the vibrant matter both within and outside of us Braiding indigenous with non indigenous worldviews this book tackles ecopoetics emerging from varying locations in the world It underscores the postmodernist remythologizing processes going on in many ecopoetic texts via magical realist modes and mythopoeia
