The Men In My Life And Other More Or Less True Recollections Of Kinship:

The Men in My Life, and Other More Or Less True Recollections of Kinsip James D. Houston, 1994 Wrong's what I Do Best Barbara Ching, 2001 This is the first study of hard country music as well as the first comprehensive application of contemporary cultural theory to country music Barbara Ching begins by defining the features that make certain country songs and artists hard She compares hard country music to high American culture arguing that hard country deliberately focuses on its low position in the American cultural hierarchy comically singing of failures to live up to American standards of affluence while mainstream country music focuses on nostalgia romance and patriotism of regular folk With chapters on Hank Williams Sr and Jr Merle Haggard George Jones David Allan Coe Buck Owens Dwight Yoakam and the Outlaw Movement this book is written in a jargon free engaging style that will interest both academic as well as general readers Updating the Literary West, 1997 Western writers says Thomas J Lyon in his epilogue to Updating the Literary West have grown up with the frontier myth but now find themselves in the early stages of creating a new western myth The editors of the Literary History of the American West TCU Press 1987 hoped that the first volume would begin not conclude their exploration of the West's literary heritage Out of this hope comes Updating the Literary West a comprehensive reference anthology including essays by over one hundred scholars A selected bibliography is included with each piece In the ten years since publication of LHAW western writing has developed a significantly larger presence in the national literary stream A variety of cultural viewpoints have developed along with new tactics for literary study New authors have risen to prominence and the range of subjects has changed and widened Updating the Literary West looks at topics ranging from western classics to cowboys and Cadillacs and considers children's literature ethnicity environmental writing gender issues and other topics in which change has been rapid since publication of LHAW This volume again affirms the West's literary legitimacy status hard earned by the Western Literary Association and the lasting place of popular western writing as part of the growing and changing literary and American experience An excellent reference for a wide range of readers and an invaluable resource for scholars and libraries Selected list of contributors James Maguire Fred Erisman Susan J Rosowski Gerald Haslam Tom Pilkington A Carl Bredahl Richard Slotkin John G Cawelti Robert F Gish Ann Ronald Mick McAllister

An Annotated Bibliography of Jazz Fiction and Jazz Fiction Criticism Richard N. Albert, 1996-09-13 Albert provides a survey of the impact of jazz on both American and foreign fiction along with an annotated listing of almost 400 short stories novels plays and jazz fiction criticism Access is augmented by an index of novels plays and short stories and by a general index Albert examines the strong impact jazz and the blues have had on fiction The annotated listing of 400 novels short stories and jazz fiction criticism will serve as a resource for those doing research in both music and literature as well as serving as a reading guide for jazz devotees who are looking for literature with a jazz motif Access is augmented by an index of novels plays and short stories and by a general index Jazz Fiction David Rife, 2008 Broad in scope meticulously researched and including titles that have long been inaccessible this resource is an overview of the history of the genre from its beginning to the present
