The Middle Babylonian Legal And Economic Texts From Ur:

The Middle Babylonian Legal and Economic Texts from Ur Oliver Robert Gurney, 1983 A full edition on the 72 tablets found during 1926 to 1927 Middle Babylonian Texts in the Cornell Collections, Part II Elena Devecchi, 2020-12-11 This volume completes the publication of Middle Babylonian texts from the Rosen Collection that date to the Kassite period a project that was initiated by Wilfred H van Soldt with CUSAS 30 in 2015 In this book Elena Devecchi provides full transliterations translations and extended commentaries of 338 previously unpublished cuneiform tablets from Kassite Babylonia ca 1475 1155 BCE Most of the texts are dated to the reigns of Nazi Marutta and Kada man Turgu but the collection also includes one tablet dating to the reign of Burna Buria II and a few documents from the reigns of Kada man Enlil II Kudur Enlil and agarakti uria as well as some that are not dated The tablets published here are largely administrative records dealing with the income storage and redistribution of agricultural products and byproducts animal husbandry and textile production while legal documents and letters comprise a smaller portion of the collection Evidence suggests that these documents originated from an administrative center that interacted closely with the provincial capital Nippur and must have been located in its vicinity They thus expand significantly our previous knowledge of the Nippur region under Kassite rule hitherto almost exclusively based on sources that came from Nippur itself and provide substantial new data for the study of central aspects of society economy and administration that traditionally lie at the core of research about Kassite Babylonia

Speaking of Speaking Samuel Meier,2014-09-03 Direct speech appears on nearly every page of the Hebrew Bible and the large number of publications on direct discourse in the Bible highlights the importance of the subject for biblical studies However thus far only isolated aspects of the various problems that direct discourse presents have received attention Studies of individual verbs introducing direct discourse such as answer speak say and others are necessarily atomistic even though appropriate in their own right Other markers of direct discourse such as Thus said Yahweh or oracle of Yahweh tend to be treated as theological constructs isolated from the larger issues of direct discourse marking in general Speaking of Speaking
