The Prison Industrial Complex Race Crime Justice In New York:

The Prison Industrial Complex John Flateau,1996 Race, Ethnicity, Crime, and Justice Shaun L. Gabbidon,2010
This book provides case studies from countries around the world regarding the nature and scope of concerns related to race ethnicity crime and justice The text centres primarily on English speaking countries where they have encountered problems related to race ethnicity crime and justice The book is designed to be used as either a main or supplementary text for courses focusing on race and crime minorities and crime and diversity in criminal justice Additionally it can also be used in sociology and ethnic studies courses that focus on race and crime

Inside Rikers Jennifer Wynn,2002-07-24 Rikers Island just six miles from the Empire State Building is one of the largest most complex and most expensive penal institutions in the world yet most New Yorkers couldn't find it on a map Jennifer Wynn the director of the Fresh Start program at Rikers takes readers into the jails and then back out to the communities where her students were born and raised She chronicles their journeys as they struggle to go straight and find respect in a city that fears and rejects them Part memoir part social commentary Inside Rikers details the author's experiences on Rikers Wynn offers a compelling portrait of its 18 000 inmates and how Rikers was transformed from one of the most violent jails into one of the safest

Race, Ethnicity, Crime, and Justice Akwasi Owusu-Bempah,Shaun Gabbidon,2020-09-24 Race Ethnicity Crime and Justice An International Dilemma Second Edition takes a unique comparative approach to the exploration of race and ethnicity related justice issues in five countries around the world Using the colonial model as a theoretical lens Owusu Bempah and Gabbidon analyse data from Great Britain the United States Canada Australia and South Africa These international case studies help students contextualize race and justice issues within and across nations Concise historical framing illuminates today's racial dynamics in these diverse justice systems and accessible theory grounds the comparison of crime and justice data from the early 21st century with current statistics A new concluding chapter revisits the question of where these nations fit in the global context of state and non state actors and of ethnic and racial justice issues This new edition is suitable for use as a core or supplemental text for advanced undergraduates and early graduate courses on race and crime minorities and criminal justice diversity in criminal justice and comparative justice systems It is also appropriate for use in sociology and ethnic studies courses that focus on race and crime

Racializing Justice, Disenfranchising Lives M. Marable,K. Middlemass,I. Steinberg,2007-09-03 African Americans today face a systemic crisis of mass underemployment mass imprisonment and mass disfranchisement This comprehensive reader makes clear to students the mutual constitution of these three crises

Racial Inequality in New York City since 1965 Benjamin P. Bowser,Chelli Devadutt,2019-08-23 In the past the study of racial inequality in New York City has usually had a narrow focus examining particular social problems affecting ethnic racial groups In contrast this book provides a comprehensive overview of racial inequality in the city's economy housing and education sectors over the last half century A collection of original essays by some of New York's most well known and emerging urban experts Racial Inequality in New York City since 1965 explores what city government has done and failed to do to address racial inequality. It examines the changes in circumstances of Asian, Latino, West Indian, and African American New Yorkers, outlining how theirs have either improved or deteriorated relative to their white counterparts. The contributors also analyze how practices and policies in policing, public housing, public health, and community services have maintained racial inequality and discuss how political participation can increase social capital among city residents in order to reduce racial inequality. The book concludes by offering a compendium of practical recommendations and actions that can be implemented to address racial inequality in the city.

Race and Racism in the United States Charles A. Gallagher, Cameron D. Lippard, 2014-06-24 How is race defined and perceived in America today and how do these definitions and perceptions compare to attitudes 100 years ago or 200 years ago? This four-volume set is the definitive source for every topic related to race in the United States. In the 21st century, it is easy for some students and readers to believe that racism is a thing of the past; in reality, old wounds have yet to heal and new forms of racism are taking shape. Racism has played a role in American society since the founding of the nation, in spite of the words "all men are created equal" within the Declaration of Independence. This set is the largest and most complete of its kind, covering every facet of race relations in the United States while providing information in a user-friendly format that allows easy cross-referencing of related topics for efficient research and learning. The work serves as an accessible tool for high school researchers, provides important material for undergraduate students enrolled in a variety of humanities and social sciences courses, and is an outstanding ready reference for race scholars. The entries provide readers with comprehensive content supplemented by historical backgrounds, relevant examples from primary documents, and first-hand accounts. Information is presented to interest and appeal to readers but also to support critical inquiry and understanding. A fourth volume of related primary documents supplies additional reading and resources for research.

The SAGE Handbook of Punishment and Society Jonathan Simon, Richard Sparks, 2012-09-18 The project of interpreting contemporary forms of punishment means exploring the social, political, economic, and historical conditions in the society in which those forms arise. The SAGE Handbook of Punishment and Society draws together this disparate and expansive field of punishment and society into one compelling new volume. Headed by two of the leading scholars in the field, Jonathan Simon and Richard Sparks, have crafted a comprehensive and definitive resource that illuminates some of the key themes in this complex area, from historical and prospective issues to penal trends and related contributions through theory, literature, and philosophy. Incorporating a stellar and international line-up of contributors, the book addresses issues such as capital punishment, the civilising process, gender diversity, inequality, power, human rights, and neoliberalism. This engaging, vibrantly written collection will be captivating reading for academics and researchers in criminology, penology, criminal justice, sociology, cultural studies, philosophy, and politics.

Police Brutality, Racial Profiling, and Discrimination in the Criminal Justice System Egharevba, Stephen, 2016-11-17 In order to protect and defend citizens, the foundational concepts of fairness and equality must be adhered to within any criminal justice system When this is not the case accountability of authorities should be pursued to maintain the integrity and pursuit of justice Police Brutality Racial Profiling and Discrimination in the Criminal Justice System is an authoritative reference source for the latest scholarly material on social problems involving victimization of minorities and police accountability Presenting relevant perspectives on a global and cross cultural scale this book is ideally designed for researchers professionals upper level students and practitioners involved in the fields of criminal justice and corrections Women Prisoners and Health Justice Dianne Hatton, Anastasia Fisher, 2018-04-19 Incarceration severely affects the health and wellbeing of women both during their incarceration and following release further complicating the health disparities they already experience as a consequence of gender race and social class The scope of this international problem remains largely hidden from health professionals and policy makers This book brings the issues into the light with contributions from leading advocates criminologists feminists nurses physicians public health professionals social workers sociologists and former prisoners
